ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a privilege for me for having been a Doctoral student at Indian Institute of Foreign Trade, New Delhi. First and foremost, I would like to express my deepest regards and heartfelt thanks to Dr. Nitin Seth the supervisor of my thesis, for his unflinching support, constant guidance and priceless gems of knowledge. I deeply revere him as my teacher and mentor, and express my earnest gratitude. This is a major milestone in my life and working towards a Doctoral program, has been an educational experience and above all it’s the constant effort and blessings of numerous people who have helped me not to get lost during the different phases of this thesis work.

My profoundest gratitude and thanks to Dr. Rakesh Mohan Joshi (Chairperson, Research) for their stimulated guidance, unwavering support and encouragement. It was a matter of good luck for me to be their research student. I really owe them lots of gratitude for having shown me this way of research.

My heartfelt gratitude and thanks to Dr. Vijaya Katti for her continuous motivation and guidance which helped me to complete my research work in right direction. A lot of her time and effort went in developing me to this level. I sincerely express thanks for my learnings. A special thank to Dr. Debashis Chakraborty for all the discussions and support he had with me on my work. A special note of thank to Dr. Biswajit Nag for being continuous support.

I got many helpful comments and suggestion from the IIFT faculty on my work especially from Dr. Sanjay Rastogi, Dr. Pooja Lakhanpal, Dr. Sunitha Raju and Dr. O.P Wali. My sincere thanks to all of them. This thesis could not have attained its present form, both in content and presentation without their active interest, direction and help. I sincerely acknowledge their efforts and commitment to ensure the quality of this thesis. I would like to thanks all my batch mates for being able to share all the frustration and joys of doing PhD together.

I would also like to thank Mr. Rajeev Shukla, and Mr. Karun from research department of IIFT Delhi for their support in entire work. Thanks are due to Ms. Deepa in the Finance section and Mr. Deshray (Administrative Officer) in the administrative section for all their prompt help whenever I needed it. Mr. O. P. Dahia, Ms. Gargi, and Mr. Sushil were PhD Programme Associate at different point of time. Thanks to them for their help in many administrative matters and for their wonderful company.
My work has benefited immensely from resource at IIFT library. I am ever thankful to Ms. B. Pankti, the Deputy Librarian and all the library staff. Thanks to all of them.

My heartfelt gratitude and sincere thanks to Mr. Ashutosh, (Sr. Manager, Kirloskar), Mrs. Aarthi, (VP, Tata Motors), Mr. Sanjay Saxena (Manager, Ashok Leyland), Mr. Manoj Deshpande (VP, Maruti), Mr. Ramesh Kumar (AVP, Mahindra and Mahindra), and other executives for helping me in guiding and collecting data for my research. I would like to thank Dr. K. Ganesh from McKinsey and Company, India for providing practical insights into the subject. The study would not have been possible without the active participation of the various automotive industries that formed a part of my study. I am grateful to all my respondents who spared their valuable time in providing me with useful data and information required for the research study.

I am grateful to my father-in-law and mother-in-law, for making my PhD work memorable and pleasurable. Their care and concern for my studies was a great source of strength and inspiration. I am very much thankful to my sisters-in-law for their motivation at different points of time. Words fail me to express acknowledgement and gratitude’s for the help and sacrifice of my parents and my brothers for their incredible love, support, encouragement and continuous motivation. Without which, I would never have been able to make it this far. They always encouraged for quality education and instilled in me the importance of education. They have always been with me, for which I am forever grateful.

I specially thank my son, Nilai and Husband Dr. Avneet Saxena for their hearty support, sacrifice, patience and loving participation in accomplishing this task, which would not have been possible otherwise.

Above all without the blessing of the God Almighty, this endeavour would not have borne fruit.

Anjai Saxena