CONTENTS

Preface  i – iii
Contents  iv- vi

PART I - INTRODUCTORY

Chapter 1 Introduction  1 - 11

PART II – INDEPENDENCE OF JUDICIARY

Chapter II Independence of Judiciary: An Overview  12- 37

1. Independence of Judiciary: the Concept
   a. The Traditional Concept
   b. Modern Version

2. Necessity of judicial independence

3. Status of judiciary and the Concept of judicial independence in India
   a. Ancient India.
   b. British era.
   c. Post-independent scenario

4. Independence of Judiciary: The Judicial Version

Chapter III - Selection of Judges to the higher Judiciary and the Process of Consultation  38 - 84

1. Appointment of Judges to High Courts
2. Selection and Appointment of Judges to the Supreme Court
3. Selection and appointment of the Chief Justice of India

Chapter IV-Conditions of Service of Judges of the Higher Judiciary  85 – 164

1. Appointment of Additional Judges
   a. Term of appointment.
   b. Extension or regularization of Additional Judges.

2. Transfer of Judges
   a. Public Interest
   b. Consultation.
c. Judicial Review
d. Consent- A Valid Norm for Transfer?
e. Policy Transfers- Are they Constitutional?

3. Removal of Judges
   a. Proof of misbehaviour under Article 124
   b. Impeachment, the Only Mode of Punishment of Judges?

Chapter V- Independence Of The Lower Judiciary 165 - 207

1. Appointment of District Judges.
   a. Scope of the Executive Power
2. Appointment of Other Judges of the Subordinate courts.
3. Conditions of Service of Judges of the Lower Judiciary
   Control of High Courts vis-à-vis independence of judiciary.

PART III - THE DOCTRINE OF BASIC STRUCTURE

Chapter VI- Basic Structure: Origin of the Doctrine 208 - 254

   a. Basic Structure: Ingredients.
   b. Raison d’etre of Basic Structure.
   c. Appraisal of the Doctrine.

Chapter VII- Basic Structure: Crystallisation of the Doctrine 255 - 310

   a. Basic Structure- A Norm for Legislation?
   b. Alternation of Basic Structure

PART IV- INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Chapter VIII- Individual Rights and Social Justice 311 - 368

   a. The Concept of Equality
   b. The Concept of Right to Life Under Article 21.
PART V - CONCLUSION

Chapter IX- Conclusions  369 - 379
Table of Cases  380 - 388
Table of Statutes  389
BIBLIOGRAPHY  390 - 402