CONTENTS

PREFACE i - v

CONTENTS vi - ix

TABLE OF CASES x - xiii

CHAPTER I 1 - 38

INTRODUCTION

An analysis of the assumption of freedom of contract theory

Limitations of the theory

Consumer's sovereignty: A myth.

Market imperfections.

Market not unbiased.

Need for State's intervention for protection of weak.

Courts intervention.

History of legal controls on drugs.

Development of legislation in England.

Regulations on drugs in the U.S.

History of drugs legislation in India.

Meaning of consumers of pharmaceutical products.

CHAPTER II 39 - 69

CONTROLS ON PRODUCTION AND CONSUMPTION OF DRUGS

A profile of drug industry and production

Norms imposed upon production of drugs under 1978 Drug Policy.

Meaning of essential drugs.

Need for preparation of essential drugs list.

Rational consumption of drugs.

Objections in regulating prescription habits and need to regulate.
Need to substitute generic drugs.

Considerations of drug policy

Need for production oriented to the poor.
- Legal support to producers and distributors of generic drugs.
- Need to reconcile the interests of industry and consumers.
- Need for allocation of more funds to health care and rationalisation of taxes.
- Need for proper co-ordination.

CHAPTER III 70 - 97

APPROVAL PROCESS FOR NEW DRUGS AND RIGHTS OF THE CLINICAL TRIAL SUBJECTS

Approval process for new drug.
Definition of new drug.
Clinical trial procedures of the U.S.A.
Need to control clinical trial procedure in India.
Duties of physicians in bio-medical research involving human subjects.

CHAPTER IV 98 - 126

IMPACT OF PATENT LAW ON CONSUMERS OF PHARMACEUTICAL PRODUCTS

Patents system in India.
- Provisions of the Patents and Designs Act 1911
- Impact of the Act on pharmaceuticals.
Provisions of the TRIPs Agreement.
Critique of TRIPs Agreement.
Salient features of the Patents (Amendment) Bill 1995.
CHAPTER V

QUALITY CONTROL MEASURES IN THE MANUFACTURE OF RUGS

Scheme of the Drugs and Cosmetics Act.

- Drugs standards.
- Misbranded, adulterated and spurious drugs.
- Powers and responsibilities of inspectors.
- Penalties for contravention.

Drugs: Product liability.

- Remedies under law of contract.
- Remedies under law of tort.

CHAPTER VI

DRUG PRICE REGULATIONS

Objectives of regulation on prices of drugs.

Legality of price control orders.

Drug control orders: An evaluation.

Measures needed for a better price control system.

- Need for use of brand names.
- Use of patent system.
- Rational packing of drugs.
- Rationalisation of taxes on drugs.

CHAPTER VII

DRUG ADVERTISEMENT AND LAW

Importance of commercial advertising.

Some aberrations in advertising.

Need to regulate advertising.

Advertising containing health claims made for medical products.

- Constitutionality of the provisions of the Act.
Provisions of the MRTP Act.
Provisions dealing with labelling of drugs.

CHAPTER VIII 263 - 311
REGULATION ON SALE, DISTRIBUTION AND COMPOUNDING OF DRUGS
Meaning of sale and stock for sale.
Meaning of distribution.
Conditions of licence for sale.
Regulations for collection, storage and supply of blood.
A critique of the functioning of the blood banks.
Duties of administrative machinery.
Liability of seller for injuries arising from sale of drugs.

CHAPTER IX 312 - 332
CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.
ANNEXURES I, II, III & IV. 333 - 336
BIBLIOGRAPHY 337 - 341
List of articles referred.