PREFACE

The topic of Temple Architecture during the Hoysala King Someshvara has been selected to build up my Thesis, because most of the scholars have done their work on overall dynasty of Hoysalas and rarely some of them are have done work on independent Kings of Hoysalas. My intention of selecting this topic on Hoysala king Someshvara, he was ruled not only from Dorasamudra but also in the Tamilnadu. He was established new capital at Kannanur or Vikramapura near Srirangam of Thiruchirapally District Tamilnadu. Even though he constructed more than a dozen temples in the Karnataka region especially in the Hassan, Mandya and Tumakur Districts of Karnataka, because of this reason only I have given special interest to study the temples of Karnataka.

I am grateful to who are supporting me during my research work like many of scholars, research scholars, Departments, friends, relatives and staff members. I am foremost grateful to my Guide Dr. N. S. Rangaraju, Professor (Retired), Department of Studies in Ancient History and Archaeology, Manasagangotri, Mysore for his thoughtful and innovative comments throughout my research work.
