LIST OF TABLES

Table 1 List of lexical items showing the difference between AS and NS
Table 2 The phonological changes in AS
Table 3 The difference between NS and AS classifiers
Table 4 Tense inflection system in AS
Table 5 Tense inflection system of copula in AS Table 6 The agreement system in AS
Table 7 Showing lists of conjuncts in AS
Table 8 Shows the list of compound verbs in AS
Table 9 The proto-properties of dative predicates.
Table 10 The proto-properties of genitive predicates.
Table 11 The degree of control of subject arguments in AS Table 12 The mapping of case and thematic hierarchy in AS
Table 13 The dynamic verbs and the proto-patient properties of the object
Table 14 The stative verbs and the properties of their objects
Table 15 The oblique object and their proto-patient properties
Table 16 Implications of the recipient with dative ke
Table 17 The proto properties of indirect objects in AS
Table 18 The proto-role properties of causee with the particular predicates in dative and instrumental case in AS
Table 19 The implications of the verb ah and as
Table 20 The lag- verb and its implications
Table-21 The difference between AS and NS compound verbs