Acknowledgements

I am very grateful to my mentor, Prof. Sanjay K. Jain, Department of Commerce, who persistently encouraged me to strive for excellence. He always gave me words of encouragement and had faith in my abilities. He taught me to think critically and to think ‘out of the box.’ As my supervisor, he was readily available and gave prompt advice during the process. His feedback was immediate and he was available for me whenever I needed help on my study. It would not be an exaggeration to mention here that without my mentor’s total cooperation, I would not be in a position to complete my work according to the time schedule. I truly appreciate his guidance, patience, and dedication throughout my doctoral study.

I would like to express thanks to my advisors - Prof. Jawahar Lal (Department of Commerce) and Prof. Madhu Vij (Faculty of Management Studies) - for the assistance and valuable time provided by them throughout the study.

I am thankful to Prof. K.V. Bhanu Murthy, Head, Department of Commerce and Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Business, University of Delhi, who has motivated me continuously till the completion of the present study. I am intensely grateful to him.

I would like to thank all other faculty members for their help and guidance given to me. Also, I wish to express thank to all those who helped me in collecting the data. I feel much obliged to the Indian consumers who were kind enough to respond to my questionnaire.

I wish to record my sincere thanks to the office of the Department of Commerce, Ratan Tata Library, and Computer Center for their administrative assistance and help throughout my Ph.D. program.
My family members provided the necessary support during the course of study. My parents have been a constant source of inspiration and support. Their unconditional love and unending support of my personal endeavors has been a major factor in giving me the strength of mind to complete my Ph.D. program. I owe a special word of appreciation to my brother for his constant source of inspiration and help at the various stages of the study.

Without the valuable contributions from these aforementioned individuals and organizations, the completion of my doctorate degree would not have been possible.

Thank you very much!
