ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With heartfelt sincerity, I wish to express my gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Mona Suri, Associate Professor, Department of Fabric and Apparel Science, Lady Irwin College. She has been a source of inspiration and strength during the course of the study. Her encouragement, inspiring guidance and critical appraisal of my work have been of utmost importance to my study.

I am indebted to my technical advisor Dr. J. V. Rao, Director, Northern India Textile Research Association (NITRA), Ghaziabad for his keen interest, innovative approach and timely inputs through the course of the study. The intellectually stimulating discussions with him provided valuable insights which helped in giving the study its present form.

My sincerest thanks are due to my technical advisor and colleague, Dr. Deepali Rastogi, Associate Professor, Department of Fabric and Apparel Science, Lady Irwin College. Her encouragement and expertise contributed significantly to my work. I appreciate the time and effort she spared for my work.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. Anupa Sidhu, Director, Lady Irwin College for her valuable support and advice during the course of my study.

I am thankful to Dr. M.S. Parmar, Assistant Director and Head, Research and Development (product) and Chemical Quality Evaluations Division, Northern India Textile Research Association, Ghaziabad for his invaluable assistance in facilitating my experimental work at NITRA.

I am also thankful to NITRA and Ministry of Textiles for the financial support provided for the study.

I am extremely grateful to Prof. Ramesh Nayar, Department of Textile Technology, Allagapa College of Technology, Anna University, Chennai for his assistance in testing of samples. I appreciate his help in analyzing and interpreting the results. His technical guidance and expertise was invaluable in developing an understanding of the subject.

I am grateful to Dr. Kushal Sen, former Head, Department of Textile Technology, Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi for allowing me to avail the laboratory facilities for testing samples. I am also thankful to Dr. A. K. Agrawal, Prof., Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi for facilitating the testing in the SMITA (Smart and Innovative Textiles) laboratory.
I also wish to acknowledge the help and support extended to me by Mr. Sanjeev Shukla, Head, PQE Laboratory, Mrs. Seema Sharma, Sr. Technical assistant, PQE Lab., Mr. Maheshwar Singh, Senior Scientific officer, Mr. Swami Saran, Senior Investigator, Mr. Gulab Vajpayee and Mr. Kuldeep Singh of Chemical Quality Evaluation Laboratory, NITRA, Ghaziabad.

I am extremely thankful to Mr. Ravi Ranjan Sharma, National Sales Manager, Crest Ultrasonics India Pvt. Ltd. for allowing me the use of equipment and other facilities at the premises of Crest Ultrasonics India Pvt. Ltd.

I am also grateful to Mr. Rakesh Dureja, GM, Plant Operations, Wardrobe, Dry Cleaning and Laundry Experts, Noida for extending support for conducting field trials in their premises. I also appreciate the help extended during trials by their technical and administrative staff.

I am also thankful to Dr. D.K. Shukla, Scientist, Indian Council of Medical Research for his assistance in statistical analyses.

Most importantly none of this would have been possible without the love, support and encouragement of my family. I would like to thank my parents and in-laws for the faith they had in me, it is a result of their heartfelt blessings that I have been able to complete my research project. My mother for her immense love and endless patience which has, forever, been my source of strength and inspiration.

A very special thanks to my husband Rajiv, it was due to his encouragement that I started and was able to finish this project. His unwavering support, love and positive outlook are my inspiration. I am also thankful to my sons, Kartik and Mudit for keeping it light and cheerful through the course of my study.

I appreciate the help and co-operation extended to me by my colleagues when I needed it the most.

Last but not the least; I deeply appreciate the help given to me by all those whom I have not been able to acknowledge individually.
