ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am deeply grateful to Dr. M. T. Thiagarajan, Dean and Head of the School of Management, Pondicherry University, who has been my guide for this research. He took a keen personal interest in the progress of my research and spent long hours with me on a number of occasions offering me his advice and guidance for the pursuit of this research. But for his encouragement and support it would not have been possible for me to complete this work. I record my most sincere thanks to him.

I am also thankful to Dr. S. Ramasamy, Professor, Department of Management Studies, Madras University, Dr. T. Anantharajan and Dr. A. M. Thirumurthy, Professors of Urban Systems Engineering, Anna University, Dr. T. A. Sivasubramaniam, Professor, Anna Institute of Management and Dr. S. Ramani, Professor, Academy for Management Excellence for their valuable advice during the course of this study.

I record my gratitude to the Government of Tamil Nadu for their permission to me to carry out this research.

My sincere thanks are due to Mr. M. Saravanam of M/s. Computer Plus for guiding me in the statistical analysis with the help of computers.

I am grateful to Messrs D. Sabapathi, S. Sudalaikkan and S. Natarajan for their secretarial assistance.

I am thankful to all others who have directly and indirectly helped me in completing this study.

(A. M. Swaminathan)
