ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I cannot find words to express my gratitude to God Almighty, Jesus Christ, without whose will I would never have discovered the right path. His mercy was with me throughout my life and ever during in this study. I thank Him for enlightening my soul with respect love and compassion for other human beings and allowing me to pursue a discipline where I could implement this desire. I thank God for the wisdom and perseverance that He has bestowed upon me during this research project, and indeed, throughout my life: "I can do everything through Him who gives me strength." (Philippians 4: 13)

I would like to express my deepest, sincere and special gratitude to my Supervisor Dr B. William Dharma Raja, Assistant professor (Stage III) for having allowed me to carry out this research work, and also for the valuable guidance, advice and continuous support during my research, for his patience, motivation, enthusiasm, and immense knowledge. His guidance helped me during the time of my research and writing of this thesis.

I also extend my thanks to Dr. Kanmani, Head in-charge and Dr A. Vellaiappan, Assistant Professor for all their kindness and support in my study. I greatly appreciate the support of Mrs. Vijayalekshmi, Lecturer, for her extensive help in synthesising the reviewed studies.

I would like to show my greatest appreciation to Dr Sampath Rani, Assistant Professor, Avinashilingam University, Coimbatore. for her tremendous support and help in the design of my questionnaire. The support received from her was vital for the successful completion of this report.
I would also like to thank Dr Benedict, Associate Professor, Mar Theophilous Teacher Training College, Nalanjerai, Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala, who had been a source of inspiration, and for his timely guidance in the correction of my questionnaire.

I thank Mr. M. Sathyaneason, the coordinator of Mentally Challenged Children, SSA of Kanyakumari District whose contribution in stimulating suggestions and encouragement, helped me coordinate my project especially in providing the statistics reports and address including all the details of mentally challenged children studying in the inclusive set-up.

Many thanks to Mr. Edwin Mani Selvaraj for his contribution in the refinement, especially, during the writing of this report.

I want to appreciate the hard work and tremendous support of Professor Philip, Former HOD, English Department, Nesomany Memorial Christian College, Marthandam. I am really grateful for his willingness to meet me at short notice and going through my questionnaire.

I would like to acknowledge the help of Dr R. Rajeswari, Associate Professor, St. Ignatious College of Education (Autonomous), Palayamkottai, for her support in the various modifications and suggestions with respect to the questionnaire used in this study.

I would like to express my special gratitude to Ms. Kruna Kani, Assistantt Professor, Bethlehem College of Education, Karungal and Mrs Linsey Canab, Ph.D scholar for their generous help in the analysis of the data.

I want to thank Dr. Rebecca Isaac for all her kindness and support provided for me, especially in pruning the recommendations.
I am also indebted to my friends Dr Thanka Shyla and Mrs Amutha Asaph not just for all their useful suggestions, but also for being there to listen whenever I needed an understanding ear. I extend my thanks to office staff of the Department of Education also for their moral support.

Furthermore, I would also like to acknowledge with much appreciation the crucial role of my correspondent Rev. Fr. Prem Kumar and Bursar Rev. Fr. Albin in completing this task.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the most important person in my life – my husband, Mr. T.C.C. Chandran, Advocate. He has been a constant source of strength and inspiration. There were times during the past five years when everything seemed hopeless and I didn’t have any hope. I can honestly say that it was only due to his determination and constant encouragement that ultimately made it possible for me to see the completion of this work. I owe my deepest gratitude to my mother Mrs. Swarna Bai, and my two loving children, C.R. Roble Ros Suriyan and C.R. Reinaldo Ros Suriyan who supported me and helped me throughout my life and during this study.
