ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am deeply indebted to my supervisor, Dr. Manoj Kumar Sharma, Reader, University Business School, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for guiding me sympathetically and patiently throughout the present research study. It is only with his able guidance and helpful attitude the work has completed in this form. He encouraged me at every step. His suggestions and instructions were extremely helpful in solving the problems that I faced during the current study.

I extend my sincere gratitude to my teachers Prof. Bidhi Chand, Former Chairman, Prof. S. P. Singh, Former Chairman, Prof. R. P. Gupta, Chairman, University Business School for providing me administrative support and other facilities to undertake this study. I am thankful to Prof. B. S. Ghuman, Chairman, Department of Public Administration, Panjab University, Prof. H. S. Shergill, Department of Economics, Panjab University, for their invaluable inspiration, guidance and help given to me during my present study. I am grateful to Dr. Gurmail Singh, Lecturer, Department of Economics, Panjab University for his useful comments and suggestions.

I am grateful to University Business School, Panjab University for granting me fellowship to undertake the present study work as a research scholar.

My thanks are due to Sh. Surinder Singh Bedi, Librarian, University Business School, Panjab University, Mr. Gulshan Gupta, Librarian, Economic and Statistical Organisation, Panjab. I am indeed grateful to various officials of Industrial Statistics Unit of Central Statistical Organisation, Department of Statistics, Ministry of Planning, New Delhi for providing me with literature and various issues of A.S.I. reports. The Library of C.S.O. provided me an ideal environment in collection of information relevant to the present study. Libraries of I.I.P.A., Ministry of Food Processing Industry, Jawahar Lal Nehru University, APEDA, PHD Chamber of Commerce and Industry and Delhi University were consulted and I am indeed grateful to their Librarians and the staff for their assistance in collection of data and library consultation.

I am also thankful to faculty members of Business Management Department and Economics Department of Panjabi University, Patiala, Panjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana and Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for their assistance in review of literature.
My sincere thanks are due to the managers of various Companies who provided me with the Annual Reports of their organisations needed for the present study and who patiently answered to my queries during the course of my interaction with them. I am also thankful to various Executive Directors, Directors, Managing Directors of Markfed, Milkfed, Panjab Agro Industrial Corporation for providing me an opportunity to interact with them.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not put a word of gratitude and sense of profound indebtedness to all my family members who not only encouraged me in taking up this work but have also shared pains at every moment of the work. I have no hesitation in admitting that for their kind help, I would never have been able to complete this work.

I am also thankful to Mr. S.N. Mahendru, Programmer, computer centre, Panjab University, Chandigarh and S. Swaran Singh for their help in carrying out analysis on computer.

I am thankful to numerous scholars and friends who in one way or the other helped me in completing this work.

Finally, my thanks are due to the various authors who contributed to my interest in food processing industry and on whose writing I have drawn heavily in the present work.
