ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Apart from the efforts of oneself, the success of any project depends largely on the encouragement and guidelines of many others. I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the people who have been instrumental in the successful completion of this project.

First of all, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the ALMIGHTY for bestowing upon me the gift of life and because of whose grace I could accomplish my research task successfully.

It is the moment of great pleasure and immense satisfaction for me to express reverence to my guides, Professor Om Prakash Katare & Professor Bhupinder Singh Bhoop, for their dexterous guidance, unflagging encouragement and for furnishing impetus of astuteness. Their meticulous comments, enthusiasm and integral view on research has made a deep impact on me. I would like to thank them for their valued suggestions, precious guidance, scholarly inputs, generous help, constructive criticism, and benevolent attention, without which it would not have been possible for me to execute this novel project efficiently and successfully. The research environment that they developed in "Drug Delivery Research Group" in V.I.P.S., always guided me to opt "optimized approaches" both in research as well as in my personal life. Thanks a lot Sirs, for helping and guiding me.

I would like to express my gratitude to Professor S. R. Vyas, Dr. H.S. Gour University, Sagar, Madhya Pradesh, for introducing me to the world of drug delivery at my post graduation level and supporting me in all aspects of my research career.

I am particularly grateful to Dr Parijat Kanujia, I.C.E.S., Jurong Island, Singapore, for enlightening the scientific and positive approach in routine research work. Thank you, sir.

I express my thankfulness to Professor V R Sinha, Chairperson and Prof. Karan Vasisht, ex-Chairperson, of the Institute for their words of encouragement, support and providing the necessary facilities to carry out my research work.

The financial support from UGC, New Delhi for awarding UGC-RGNF is highly acknowledged.

Thanks to all the teachers especially Professor A. R. Rao, Professor Indu Pal Kaur, Professor Shishu, Professor Renu Chadha, Professor Manoj Kumar, Professor Anupam Sharma, Professor Ranju Bansal, Professor Karunafjit Chopra, Professor Anil Kumar, Professor Poonam Piplani, Dr. Maninder Kahan and Ms. Alka Bali for their support. I am also thankful to Neelima Madam for her support and affection.
I would like to thank Dr. Sanyog Jain Sir and his team, NIPER, Mohali and Dr. Subeet Jain Sir and his team, Punjabi University, Patiala, for the timely help, support and encouragement.

Special thanks to Dr. V. K. Arsol for giving me an opportunity to get exposure to an entirely new field of science, i.e., SANS. I am also thankful to Dr. Deves, Sumit and other teammates for sharing their knowledge on SANS.

Special thanks to Dr. N. Ganesh, Head, Department of Research, Jawaharlal Nehru Cancer Hospital & Research Centre, Bhopal, for guiding and supporting me for the cell line studies despite his extremely busy schedule. Thank you, sir.

I also wish to address my sincere thanks to Dr. Sunil Dogra and Dr. Tarun, Department of Dermatology, PGIMER, Chandigarh, Dr. Mini P. Singh, Department of Virology, PGIMER, Chandigarh for being instrumental in support of my research activities. My deepest thanks to all of you.

It is a moment of pleasure to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. V. Goni, Additional Professor, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, PGIMER, Chandigarh, for always being available to help me on personal as well as professional fronts. Sir, you are a great person as well as a great clinical scientist. Thanks a lot.

I express my courteous gratitude to Dr. Anil Paresk, IPCA, Mumbai and Dr. J. N. Verma, Lifecare Innovation, Gurgaon, for providing gift samples of drugs and sharing knowledge on various professional fronts.

I would like to specially thank Dr. Manish Chaurasia, CDRI, Lucknow, for his timely help and support.

Thanks are also extended to my worthy seniors, Dr. Amit Bhatia, Dr. Deepak Kapoor Dr. Bharwara Jain, Dr. Kaisar, And Dr. Rishi Kapihl, for their support. I am highly indebted to Amit Bhatia Sir for always being like an elder brother in a true sense, for resolving problems and managing tough situations effectively. Both Dr. Kapoor and Dr. Bhatia always inspired me to work hard irrespective of the situation. Especially Dr. Kapoor, who always gave me solutions to my research problems with a different perspective. The company of Kaisar Sir was enjoyable and worth learning. Thank you all.

My journey of Ph. D. was beautiful and lively because of my labmates, Dr. Pran, Mr. Anshuman, Mr. Sarwar, Mrs Poonam, Ms. Sheetu, Mr. Neeraj, Mr. Ashay, Mr. Gujanand, Mrs Babita, Mr
Premjeet, Ms Shikha and Mrs Rajneet. Thanks to Poonam and Sheetu for your support and cooperation.

I would specially like to thank Anshuman for all the enjoyable moments, love and friendship. Without you my life at PVU would not have been so pleasant. Here, I can’t forget memorable moments that I shared with Saurabh Purohit and Ashutosh Molpatra. Thank you all.

Dr Pran, the guy who understood me in all respects, gave me all kinds of support, and encouraged me to involve in other fields of science apart from the core pharmaceutical research. I feel proud to have Pran as my best friend. Thanks a lot dear.

Thanks are also extended to all my juniors especially Shweta, Deepa, Neha, Arvind, Geeta, Naveenjot, Himanshu, Bimaldeep, Nitesh, Chetan, Manddeep, Shelly, Prateek, Mauzami, Priyanka, Mamt Schadeva, Manjul, Shikha, Sneha, Chander Bhushan, Rahul, Aman Singla, Anupreet, Monica, Harinder, Shilpa Kakkar, Manddeep, Ashish Jena, Ankit, Manmeet, Yukshi, Lohit, Kriti, Vandana, Supriya Ravinder and Shashi. Thank you all for your unconditional help and support. Special thanks to Neha, Arvind, Geeta, Bimaldeep, Manddeep and Ankit for joining my hands to perform a number of research protocols even in tough situations.

Ashay, Ankit, Yukshi, Neeraj, Anshuman and Manddeep are the ones who deserve my cordial thanks. Only because of you all I could compile my research work efficiently.

Thanks to Avtar Singh Sir (CIL), Maninder Madam (CPEBS), Ranjit Kaur Madam, Devi Lal Ji (DST-FIST Lab), Dinesh Sharma Sir (CIL), Manish Ji (CIL) and Mohinder Singh Sir (CIL) for their continuous support and help in various analytical and characterization studies. Special thanks to Usha Madam, Indra Madam and Kaundal Sir for their constant support and blessings during my PhD.

My heartfelt condolences to the experimental animals that were sacrificed in the process of making my research endeavor successful. May GOD grant them eternal peace.

I am also thankful to my invaluable network of supportive and treasured friends, of my school and University days - Dr Nishant, Dr Ajazuddin, Ashish, Dr Umesh, Dr Santram, Vikash, Dr. Vaibhav and to my juniors Nitin, Amit, Satish, Saif, Arvind, Rishi, Abhinav, for their tremendous support, help and love. Thanks a lot for being there in times of need.

I am highly thankful to my loving parents, younger brother, my sisters and my wife Anamica, who encouraged and helped me at every stage of my personal and academic life, and longed to see this achievement come true. I would like to thank them for their continuous support, sacrifice and unconditional love which made my journey of PhD beautiful, enjoyable and memorable.

I extend my profound respect and heartfelt gratitude to my beloved "mother Smt. Geeta Amarji and father Shri Raja Ram Amarji". I cannot bind my love and affection in the limits of words that I have with my parents. I always feel to be the blessed one to have both of you as my parents. It is a great moment to say thanks to my uncle-aunty and parents-in-law for always blessing me to do the best, especially to my uncle Late Shri Ganga Ram Kor. My dearest sister Varsha and brother-in-law (Dr. Pawan), and Smita and brother-in-law (Mr. Chandrasekhar) and sweetest sister Amrita always supported me and helped me with and without need. My brother Vikram, always listened to me patiently and helped me in all situations with his own intelligence, I feel very proud to have such a brother. My cousins especially Manish always helped me to complete my social responsibilities despite my engagements in research work. Thank you all for the love care and support. My heartful thanks are reserved for my loving wife 'Anamica' without who this effort would have been worth nothing. She was always there cheering me up and stood by me through the good and bad times. She always supported, encouraged and believed in me, and in all my endeavours and who so lovingly and unselfishly cared for my parents in my absence. Dear, thank you so much.

I express my deepest gratitude towards all who were instrumental in bringing my project to completion and apologize to those whose contribution could not be mentioned herein. Thanks to all who supported me throughout my research tenure and stay in Chandigarh.
