ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Cliché though it may sound, yet it comes from the heart. It gives me immense, pleasure to submit this Thesis, “Pre-Merger versus Post-Merger Performance Evaluation of Public Sector Banks Vis-à-vis Private Sector Banks in India that have merged during the period (1993-1994 to 2004-2005).” I have accomplished this research only because of the direction, guidance, support and inspiration given by my guide, Dr. Dinesh D. Harsolekar, Director, IES Management College and Research Centre, Bandra, Mumbai. I am very fortunate to have sir’s support, knowledge and encouragement throughout the completion of my thesis. Apart from sir’s professional supervision he has also motivated me throughout my completion and it is only through sir’s incessant inspiration and guidance, this research work was possible. I take this occasion to express my deep sense of appreciation and gratefulness to Dr. Dinesh D. Harsolekar.

I am very grateful to Prof. Parag Mahulikar, Dean, IES Management College and Research Centre, for his constant motivation, teaching and advice during the analysis phase of my thesis. He assisted me with the use of the software analysis package. It is also his constant reassurance, motivation and support that assisted in completion of the research.

I would like to place on record my gratitude to Dr. Richa Chaudhary, Associate Professor, IES Management College and Research Centre for all her advice and support. She was there to motivate me and assist me whenever I needed her aid.

My gratitude to all my interviewees who very willingly offered their time as well as valuable information that could further enrich my research.

I would like to place on record the support, guidance and blessing of my father and mother, late Mr. Santan Fernandes and late Ms. Severine Fernandes, my sister Mrs. Serena Fernandes, my husband Mr. Santosh Tatuskar, my daughters Miss. Nidhika Tatuskar and Miss. Nitisha Tatuskar, my mother in law Parvathi Tatuskar, father in law Narsingh Tatuskar and all my friends for their motivation in pursuing my Ph. D.
My Special thanks to Mr. Shankar Jadhav, Head Strategy, Bombay Stock Exchange, Mr. V.S Parthasarathy, CFO, Mahindra and Mahindra and Mr. Mohan.V. Tanksale, Chief Executive, Indian Banking Association for their all-encompassing support in getting the appropriate information and data for the study purpose, and also thank all my colleagues for their moral support in my Ph. D. work.

For the enormous information that I could get, I am thankful to Library staff of IES Management College and Research Centre, SNDT Women’s University, Mumbai, Reserve Bank of India Library and University of Mumbai Library.

I owe my gratitude to Dr. Aradhana Goutam, Professor, IES Management College and Research Centre, for formatting the thesis in proper perspective.

Finally, I thank one and all who have helped me in every form in accomplishment of this endeavour.

Svetlana Santosh Tatuskar
