ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to acknowledge with deep sense of gratitude, to the following persons and institutions without whose help and co-operation, the present work would not have been possible.

I am extremely thankful to Prof. M. Madaiah M.A. Ph.D., (S. Illinois) the esteemed former Vice-Chancellor, University of Mysore for his encouragement, guidance and valuable suggestions during the course of this research work.

I am highly grateful to my guide Dr. (Smt) S. Indumati, professor, Department of Studies in Economics and Co-operation, University of Mysore for her constant support, encouragement, valuable suggestions and guidance in the course of this research work. She is a friend, philosopher, teacher and guide. She always understand my problems and helped me out throughout this work.

I wish to express my gratitude to SC/ST cell, University of Mysore, for providing me university fellowship in the beginning of this work. I am extremely thankful to UGC for considering my name for Junior Fellowship and for providing UGC Fellowship for 2 years to which I resigned to join KPSC lecturer post in K.R.Pet.

I am highly indebted to Dr. Keshava Murthy H.R., New Delhi for helping me to collect lot of valuable material from various Institutions, Ministries in New Delhi. And I wish to acknowledge with gratitude the following institutions for providing ample information for my research work.

1. Mysore University library, Manasa Gangotri, Mysore.
2. Institute of Developmental studies, Manasa Gangotri, Mysore.
3. Administrative training institute, Mysore.
4. Institute of social and economic changes (ISEC) Bangalore.
I wish to thank all those people, who belonged to different Taluks of Mysore District for responding patiently during my field work.

I wish to thank the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department of Economics and Co-operation for their encouragement. I also wish to thank the first and second year MA students of 1997-98 batch for voluntarily helping me in my field work. With their help the field work really became a very easy and flexible work.

I would like to show my gratitude to all the research students of my guide, for involving themselves in helping me to complete this work. Particularly I owe a lot of my friend N.Ratna.

I would also like to thank Principal S.J.Vasudevan and former principal K.P.Kumar in K.R.Pet GFGC and other teaching and non-teaching staff for encouraging me to complete my work in time.

I thank Miss. Hema and Smt. and Sri. Siddaramaiah, for their help.

Further, I thank whole heartedly "Micro Dot Creators" family for getting this thesis in a good shape.

Above all, I would like to remember my parents, other family members for their constant encouragement, consistant support, love and affection. Their blessing is the main spirit behind my success.

(H.R. UMA)