ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, my gratitude is due to God. He sustained me and gave me the strength to pursue this research work. It is undeviating joy and pleasure to look back at the long journey, to be able to sum up some of the finest moments, thinking of some benevolent people who were with me from the beginning, some who joined me at different stages during this journey, whose kindheartedness, love and blessings have brought me to this event. I wish to thank each of them from the bottom of my heart.

I am deeply grateful to my guide and supervisor of my research work Dr. H Nanjegowda, Professor and Principal of Yuvaraja’s College, University of Mysore, Mysuru, for his meticulous guidance and valuable suggestions throughout this Endeavour. As a teacher and a great humanitarian, he fascinated me like none other. He inspired me with boundless enthusiasm towards this task.

I owe my thanks to Prof. B. H. Suresh, Chairman, BOS, Department of Studies in Commerce, University of Mysore, Mysore, for his encouragement and support. I express my sincere thanks to Dr. K. Nagendra Babu, chairman, Department of Studies in Commerce, University of Mysore, Further I thank Prof. G. Kotreshwar and all the faculty members Prof. H. Rajashekar, Dr. N. Nagaraj, Dr. B. Nagaraju, and Dr. M. L. Ashok, for their suggestions and support and my Special thanks to Office Staff DOS in Commerce, University of Mysore.

I shall also express my profound gratitude to my parents of it would have been impossible for me to accomplish this ambition. I extend my special thanks to esteemed teachers like Dr. Mahesh and Dr. Premakumara G. S, Professor, Department of Economics, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, Dr. S. Venkatesh Professor, Department of Business Management, Maharaja’s College and Dr. C. Sumangala Professor & HOD of BBA & MBA Yuvaraja’s College. In particular, a special thanks to my Professor Kalchannegowda Department of Sociology, University of Mysore, Mysuru.
I am very much pleased to dedicate this thesis to my parents: Hajee Tajamul Hussain and Noorjan for their endless aspiration for my achievement. Further, I extend my thanks to my family members and Words are inadequate to express my thanks to my family for affection and endearment throughout this arduous task.

I am grateful to the University of Mysore– the PhD Registration section, for providing an opportunity to carry out this Doctoral research. And finally, I thank each and every one who has directly or indirectly helped me and this note of gratitude is an indication of how the task of this thesis was a collective endeavor.
