ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Grateful thanks are due to my guide, Dr. Praful N. Dave, M.A., Ph.D. (Washington University), Reader in Education, Regional College of Education, Mysore, who guided me at every step and without whose sincere help it would not have been possible to complete this research in such a short time.

Appreciation is extended to Sri P.R. Nayar, Reader in Education, Regional College of Education, Mysore, Dr. Seetharamiah, M.A., Ph.D. (Ohio State University), Reader in Education, University of Mysore, Mysore, Prof. A. Seshaiengar, Sri Shankar Narayana, Lecturer, Teachers' College, Mysore, and Dr. I. Hostetler, U.S. AID Consultant in the Regional College of Education, Mysore, who were kind enough to work on the committees to help in the preparation of the theoretical model.

The author shall be failing in duty if he does not express his heartfelt gratitude to all the experts and the teachers for their cooperation in responding to the rating scales.

CHAMAN LAL ANAND
Lecturer in Education, Regional College of Education, Mysore.
