ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First I would like to thank the Almighty for giving me the perseverance, drive, endurance and for inspiring and guiding me throughout my research journey

I am also deeply indebted to the following people, without whose support and strength this thesis would have simply been an aspiration:

Dr. Saumitra Chakravarty, my guide and supervisor, for guiding me with her example of perfection, scholasticism and tireless research. Her discerning and insightful observations have kept this thesis on the right path leading to its successful completion

The President, Vice President of Jain University ; Dr. Sandeep Shastri, Pro Vice Chancellor, Jain University and Dr. Mythili Rao, Dean of Languages, Jain University for their enduring faith in me, inspiring me with their integrity and commitment and for their perpetual readiness to help and be of assistance.

Dr. Sr. Philomena Cardoza, Provincial, Sisters of St. Joseph’s of Tabbes, for being the abode of strength, encouragement and for aiding me at all times.

Dr. Sr. Elizabeth, Principal, Jyoti Nivas College, Autonomous, who has inspired me with her many enterprising endeavours and has taught me that nothing is impossible.

Dr. Sr. Lalitha, Director, Post Graduate Centre, Jyoti Nivas College, Autonomous, for her constant encouragement and for alleviating my responsibilities during the course of my research work.

Dr. V. Shantha, Head of the Department of English, Jyoti Nivas College, Autonomous, for encouraging me with her faith in me and motivating me to explore uncharted horizons.

Dr. Prakrithi, Head of the Department of English, Jain University for her ever ready nature to help me during impossible times in myriad ways.
My colleagues in my department (Dept of English, Jyoti Nivas College), for their warmth and concern.

My parents, Ramaa Subramaniam and R. V. Subramaniam, for always being my pillars of strength, care and resilience.

My husband, Vasan Balakrishnan, for having stood by me, and for being the “woman” in our home throughout my extensive research programme.

My daughter Sakshi, for just being herself, the cheerful -stress reliever.
