ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is very pleasant for me to acknowledge the gratitude and thanks to those whose valuable advice and help led to completion of my work.

First of all, I express my indebtedness and gratitude to my Supervisor Dr. Projit Kumar Palit, Reader, Department of History, Assam University, Silchar for his sincere and efficient guidance given to me throughout the period of my research. I was constant beneficiary of his erudition and insight which illuminated my path. Without his help and constant care the work would not have seen the light of the day.

I acknowledge indebtedness to Dr. Sudeshna Purakayastha, Head of the Department of History, Assam University, Silchar, whose valuable advice and suggestions helped a lot to carry out the work properly. My sincere thanks and gratitude is due to all faculty members of the Department of History, Assam University, Silchar for their sincere advice and suggestions in carrying out the work in proper way.

I acknowledge my deepest thanks and gratitude to Sri G.K. Das, Principal, Haflong Government College, Mrs. Bharati Thousen, Head of the Department of History, Haflong Government College for their encouragement and words of support in conducting research for my work. I also offer my heartfelt thanks and gratitude to my colleagues beginning with Dr. M. Rahman, Mr. M.C. Bakali, Dr. D. Barua, Mr. A Chaudhury and many more for their suggestion and encouragement in conducting the research for the work.

My thanks are also due to the authorities and staff of Assam University Library, Silchar, Gauhati University Library, Jalukbari, Haflong Government College Library, Haflong, Archaeological Survey of India, Guwahati, Directorate of Archaeology Assam, Guwahati, Historical Antiquarian, Guwahati, Assam State Museum, Guwahati, Kamrup Anusadhan Samiti, Guwahati, District Library, Haflong and other authorities for providing material for the work.

I also express my gratitude to my mother Smti. Bhadreswari Saikia and elder cousin brother Shri Nityananda Hazarika for their constant encouragement that had shown for the work. I also express my heartfelt thanks to my wife Mrs. Bhabani Borah, my son Sri Bhargob Saikia and my daughter Miss Aisharija Saikia who in spite facing lot of inconvenience helped me in preparing the work.

Finally I have to mention my deep feeling to bereavement, Prof. Ranjit Kumar De, under whose inspiration and encouragement I have started the work, passed away all of a sudden depriving me from the benefit of his suggestion and advice. He was the person who encouraged me to undertake this work of research. If I had not met him I would not have embarked on this project.

Place: Jilehun
Date: 12-05-2010

(GOLAP SAIKIA)