ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost I wish to express my eternal gratitude and sincere prayers to “The Omnipresent” whose Divine Grace has given me confidence, strength and the courage and the following persons for successfully completing this piece of work.

I express my deep and immense sense of gratitude to Dr. Asha K.V.D. Kamath, Associate Professor, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Ajmer, for her indispensable and sincere guidance. I am very much indebted to her for her parental affection reflected in the course of meaningful guidance and supervision of the work. She deserves my additional indebtedness for dealing so patiently and tactfully with my attempts to describe various points in the work. Without her unfailing courtesy and monumental patience this thesis would still be far from finished.

I acknowledge my profound gratitude to Prof. D.G. Rao, Principal, RIE (NCERT), Mysore, for his moral support, encouragement and timely advice. I extend my sincere gratitude towards Dr. V.D. Bhat, Dean of Education, RIE, Mysore, for his valuable suggestion and moral support offered during the period of this work. I offer my profound gratitude to Dr. Sajan, Associate Professor, Faculty of Education, N.S.S Training College, Ottappalam for his valuable suggestions, kind help and support.

I owe my gratitude to all the faculty members of the Education Department, RIE, Mysore, for their encouragement and inspiration for conducting this research work. I extend my sincere gratitude to Sri. Deepesh K.N., Teacher, Markaz Higher Secondary School, Kozhikode, for his steady support and help to complete my computer work and constant inspiration for completing my research work.
I am grateful to the librarian and non-teaching staff of RIE, Mysore, N.S.S. Training College, Ottappalam and Calicut University, Kerala.

I am also thankful to Sri. Mohankumar, Sri. Venkatesh and Smt. Urmila B. Lingappa, for their sincere cooperation for completing the typing and binding work of this thesis.

I am thankful to the Head Mistress, all the teachers, students of Kunnamangalam Higher Secondary School, Kunnamangalam, for their sincere cooperation for conducting the experiment.

Last, but certainly not least, I thank all my family members, relatives and all my friends, for their patient listening and all the words of encouragement.

Above all, I am greatly indebted to each and every one who even by the smallest thought or word has helped me during the period of my study. This journey would have been impossible without each and every one of them.

Thanks to all.
