In the present study I have made a sincere attempt to study systematically and exhaustively the role and ideas of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose with the help of various sources—published and unpublished literature on him, and interviews with the members of Subhas Bose's family—Dr. Sisir Kumar Bose, who is now the Director of Netaji Research Bureau, Calcutta; and the I.N.A. heroes and heroines Maj. P.K. Sahgal, Col. S. Dhillon, the heroes of the Red Fort Trial, and Capt. Laxmi (Swaminathan) Sahgal, and Mr. Abid Hassan, who accompanied Netaji Subhas Bose from Germany to South-East Asia by a sub-marine, during the World War II and late Dilip Kumar Roy, friend of Netaji. I had the privilege to be in the midst of the members of the Bose family and the I.N.A. Officers twice during the II and III International Seminar on Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, held at Calcutta from 23rd to 26th Jan. 1976 and 1979 respectively to which I was deputed by the Karnatak University, Dharwar. I remain obliged to the authorities of the University.

I must express my deep sense of gratitude to my beloved teacher Dr. A.M. Rajasekharish, Professor and Head of the Department of Political Science, under whose inspiring guidance I was able to complete this study. His lectures on the occasion of the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose on 23rd Jan. 1975 at the Karnatak Vidya Varshak Sangha, Dharwad, was the source of inspiration for this work. But for his help and guidance this study would not have been possible. I remain obliged to him.

Dr. K. Raghavendra Rao, another teacher of mine came to my help whenever I sought the same.

'I thank sincerely the authorities of Libraries for their kind co-operation in this connection, especially the Nehru Memorial Library, Theen Murthy Bhavan, New Delhi, The Gandhi Memorial Library, New Delhi, The Netaji Research Bureau, Calcutta, the Karnatak University Library, Dharwad.

'I cannot forget the help of Dr. M. K. Vaidya, the Head of the Karnatak Health Institute, Ghataprabha, his wife and his assistant Vimal Kulkarni, for their kind co-operation and help when I had been to them to study the literature left behind by N. G. Ganpuley, a close associate of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose in Germany.
