I would like to express my deep appreciation and gratitude to my advisor, Dr. Harini Nagendra, for the patient guidance and mentorship she provided to me, all the way from when I first joined ATREE as an intern through till completion of this degree. Her patience, motivation and support helped me overcome many difficulties and finish this dissertation. I am truly fortunate to have had the opportunity to work under her guidance. I would also like to thank my committee members, Drs. Gladwin Joseph and Ankila Hiremath for their guidance and suggestions, which they continuously offered me over the years. I am deeply grateful to Dr. Ferenc Jordan for the discussions that helped me sort out the technical details and interpretation of Social Network Analysis.

I am also thankful to ATREE Academy coordinators during the tenure of my Ph.D. programme: Aravind Madhyastha and Gladwin Joseph, Ganesan Balachander and Madhavi (Assistant coordinator), who were always ready to facilitate my Ph.D. work.

The various courses in ATREE and the one on Social Network Analysis conducted by Stockholm Resilience Center were very enriching and helped shape my thoughts and approach towards the thesis. Special thanks go to all my course instructors: Drs Jagadish Krishnaswamy, Robert Chandran, Nitin Rai, Gladwin Joseph, Siddhartha Krishnan, Seema Puroshothaman, Ravikanth and Henrik Ernstson.

I appreciate the financial support from Tata Institute of Social Welfare, Royal Norwegian Embassy that funded this research. I also acknowledge funding from USAID PEERS.

I would like to thank Dr Nikhil Lele, who as a good friend was always willing to help and give his best suggestions. Many thanks to Dr. Aravind Madhyastha, Dr. Savitha Swamy, Dr Sanchayeeta Adhikari, Shubhankar Ghosh, Arundhati Das, Rashmi M K, Paramesh for helping in various stages of my study. My roommates Bhawna Sharma and Pooja Tomar made my stay in Bangalore enjoyable and will remain etched in my memory forever.

Most importantly, none of this would have been possible without the love and patience of my family. I would like to thank my parents, my Didi, Arupda and Dada.
They were always supporting me and encouraging me with their best wishes. I would also like to thank my husband, R S Manoj Kumar. He was always there encouraging me, stood by me through the good times and bad and has taken up far more than his fair share of parenting and managing domestic responsibilities while I pursued this final degree. Finally, a big thank you to my little 4 ½ year old son, Shreyan, who has been the most accommodating to my long periods of study and displayed maturity far beyond his years of age.
