ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I take this opportunity to acknowledge my gratitude to Dr. R.T. Jangam, Professor and Chairman, Department of Political Science, Karnatak University, Dharwad, under whose guidance the study was taken up and completed.

I am thankful to the faculty members of the Political Science Department for their guidance and valuable suggestions.

Captain B.C. Kalmath was my predecessor in the NSS office of the Karnatak University and I must thank him for encouraging me to take up this work.

Mr. B. Parthasarathy, IAS, the Registrar of the University then, helped me with the various records of the university, files and papers, required for undertaking this research. I am thankful to him. I should also place on record my gratitude to the present Vice-Chancellor, Dr. S. Rame Gowda, for urging me to complete this work.

My present employers, the Anjuman College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Dharwad, and particularly the authorities, Dr. A.M. Jamadar, Professor M.P. Yaragatti, and Mr. I.I. Mokashi helped me to spare sufficient time for this pending research. The Karnataka University, Dharwad librarians, Professor K.S. Deshpande and Professor R.C.Patil, as well as the Assistant Librarians (Dr.S.C.Kendadmath in particular), have given me a good deal of cooperation and assistance and I must thank all of them.

Professors H.R.Meti, B.K.Shivanna and H.S.S.Khan have been the present Coordinators of the Karnataka University, Dharwad, the University of Mysore, Mysore, and the University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad, respectively. They have helped me with information, statistics and literature required for this study and I am happy to acknowledge their assistance.

Finally various other individuals and institutions have given me their cooperation and assistance. I must record my appreciation in this regard and I may be excused for not listing here all the names.
