SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

PRIMARY SOURCES

1. Works by William Golding

A. POEMS

B. FICTION

Lord of the Flies (London: Faber and Faber, 1954).
The Inheritors (London: Faber and Faber, 1955).
Pincher Martin (London: Faber and Faber, 1956).
Free Fall (London: Faber and Faber, 1959).
The Pyramid (London: Faber and Faber, 1967).
The Scorpion God (London: Faber and Faber, 1971).
Rites of Passage (London: Faber and Faber, 1980).
Close Quarters (London: Faber and Faber, 1987).

C. ESSAYS

The Hot Gates and Other Occasional Pieces (London: Faber and Faber, 1965).

A Moving Target (London: Faber and Faber, 1982).

D. TRAVELOGUE

E. PLAY

F. ESSAYS AND REVIEWS

Note: The articles which had appeared in The Spectator, Holiday, The Times Literary Supplement, and The Listener and were subsequently reprinted in The Hot Gates (see above) have been left out.

"An Affection for Cathedrals", Holiday, XXXVI (December, 1965), pp.35, 42.

"Androids All", The Spectator, CCVI (February 24, 1961), pp.263-64.

"In Retreat", The Spectator. CCIV (March 25, 1960), pp.448-49.

"Langham Diary", The Listener. (January 3, 1974), p.3.

G. INTERVIEWS AND QUESTIONNAIRES ON WILLIAM GOOLDING

II.A. Critical Works on William Golding

Coles (ed.): Golding's 'Lord of the Flies' Notes (Coles Editorial Board, 1962).

B. Articles on William Golding

Acheson, James: "Golding's 'Free Fall' as Confession and Parable", Ariel, 7, (January, 1976), pp.73-83.

Buckley, Jerome H.: Season of Youth: The 'Bildungstoman' from Dickens to Golding (Harward University Press, 1974).

Harris, Wendell U.: "Golding's Free Fall", Explicator, XXIII (1965), Item 76.

Smith, Peter-Duval: "Free Fall", in New Statesman, 24 October, 1959.

Sternlicht, Sanford: "A Source for Golding's Lord of the Flies: Peter Pan?" English Record, XIV (December, 1963), pp.41-42.

White, Robert J.: "Butterfly and Beast in 'Lord of the Flies'", Modern Fiction Studies, 10, (Sum., 1964), pp.163-70.

