SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

PRIMARY SOURCES:
I. Constitutional Documents:
Constituent Assembly Debates (1947-1949)

II REPORTS:
- Report of the State Reorganisation Committee-1955

III MEMORANDA:
- Memorandum of the Government of West Bengal on Centre-State Relations to the central government, 1971.

SECONDARY SOURCES
IV BOOKS:

V. JOURNALS:

Balasubramanian, M, “Financial Relations of the Union and the States”,

Das, P., “Governor is not Bound to Accept the Chief Minister’s Advice to Dissolve the House—Constitutional Position Analyzed”, Organizer, 28 December 1968, p.5.

Gopalan, A.K., "How can Centre-State Relations Improve When Congress Ministers Incite People against UF Governments?", People's Democracy, 5(11), 1969, pp.5-7.

Katju, K. N., “Are Governors Necessary?”, Indian Review, 1965, January, pp.3-5, Majumdar, Bimanbehari : “Union-State Relations in India”, Quest, (57), April-June 1968, pp.9-20.

Morkhandikar, R. S., “Centre-State Relations – A New Phase”, Opinion, 7 March 1967, pp.4-6.

Narain, Iqbal and Mathur, P.C., “Union-State Relations in India – A Case Study of Rajasthan”, Journal of Commonwealth Political Studies, Vol-2, 1964, p.120.

Saklecha, V. K., “Centre should Consult States before Issuing Ordinances”, Tribune, 30 September 1968.

VI. NEWS PAPERS:

Rangachary S., Centre-State Relations-Who is the Culprit ?”, Times of India, 1 June 1969, p.11.

Sattanathan, A.N., “Wanted, A Yet More Powerful Centre at Delhi”,

Sattanathan, A.N., “Centre-State Relations-Limitations of Autonomy”,

Srinivas, M.N., “Towards Smaller States-Way to a stronger centre”,

Vishwam, S., “States Catalogue of Complaints Against the Centre”,