ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset my heartfelt and sincere gratitude to my heavenly father Almighty who had been blessing me with good life, health, strength and wisdom all through my days particularly in this study.

I submit my humble thanks and the highest respect to my guide Dr. P. Loganathan, M.Com., M.Phil., Ph.D., Professor of Management Studies, Jamal Institute of Management, Jamal Mohamed College, Tiruchirappalli-20 who has been my role model, philosopher and guide. Her self-effacing efforts and unstinted support and care facilitated the successful submission of this thesis. I thank him for his kind guidance, suggestive help and support throughout the period of study.

I deem it an honor and proud privilege to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Karuna Khaushik, Principal, Lakhmibai College, University of Delhi and Prof. K. Rajeshwari, Principal, Periyar EVR College, Tiruchirappalli for their kind encouragement, inspiring guidance, valuable comments and suggestions and constant encouragement in the successful completion of this course.

I am grateful to Prof. P. Gowthaman, Head, Department of Commerce, Periyar EVR College, Tiruchirappalli for permitting me to do the research work.
I wish to thank Dr. K. Kavimani, Department of Commerce, Periyar EVR College, Tiruchirappalli for their encouragement and support during the course of the study.

I acknowledge with a heavy heart the burden willingly undertaken by my father Thiru. P. Krishnan and my mother Mrs. K. Thulasimanai Krishnan and my sisters.

I offer my sincere thanks to the Special Officers of the Primary Cooperative Agricultural and Rural Development Banks (PCARDBs) viz., Bhavani, Erode, Kangayam and Perundurai for their constant support for the collection of necessary data.
