Acknowledgement

A journey is easier when people travel together. Interdependence is certainly more valuable than independence. This endeavour is a result of four and half years of work wherein I have been accompanied and supported by many people, known and unknown. I would like to take this opportunity to express my heart-felt gratitude to one and all of them.

First of all, I thank my Research Guide, Prof. R. V. Dadibhavi, for inspiring, encouraging and guiding me to seek a deeper understanding of the discipline, and also for invaluable comments and suggestions that he gave during the entire course of my research. I am immensely grateful to him for having sent me to the Institute for Social and Economic Change (ISEC) where I worked under Prof R S Deshpande and familiarised myself with the various research tools, techniques, methodologies. I am indebted to my guide Prof R V Dadibhavi and Prof R S Deshpande for whatever I have achieved in my research career, I have found them to be highly principled. Their enthusiasm and integral view of research and their resolve to give only 'high-quality work and not less' has made a deep impression on me, and I will ever remain grateful to them. I consider them as my Mahan Gurujis.

My sincere thanks go to my father – Shri. Veerayya Hanagodimath, mother – Smt. Neelamma, Brothers Sriyuths Gangadhar & Shivakumar and sister-in-law Smt. Sujatha for their lots of struggles and sacrifices for my course. Their encouragement and inspiration have greatly helped me to successfully complete my work. I am proud to be born to such parents, who, though not fortunate to have received education, encouraged and enabled me to fulfill my ambitions. I owe the debt of gratitude to my grandfather and grand mother late Shri. Murigeyya Hanagodimath (Ex-Army and freedom fighter) and late Smt. Savitramma Hanagodimath for their kind concern; I remember them with affection and gratitude. Thanks are also due to my uncle late Shri. Mallikarjunaswami, my aunt, Smt. Sarojamma and my brother Shri. Kotresh.

My thanks are due to Prof. Uliveppa Head of the Dept. of Studies in Economics Karnataka University Dharwad; to Dr. R. R. Biradar lecturer Department of Economics, Prof. S.T. Bagalkoti, Prof. P.M.Honakeri and Prof. (Smt.) P.M.Savadatti and all faculties for their valuable suggestions at various levels of my research work. Special thanks are also due to Dr. Nagoor, Lecturer Department of Economics Karnataka University Dharwad, for friendly and needful suggestions. I am very grateful to Mr. Mohantesh Bilagi Assistant Commissioner (AC) who helped to develop my English in an appreciable degree. Thanks are also due to Prof. Tippaiah and Prof. Bhende who were the Project Supervisors at ISEC during 2004-05.

I have been fortunate to get sincere friends wherever I have gone. I am very much grateful to Prasanna Pandhari and Dyamanna Manakatti (M.Phil. [Ph.D]) not only for their co-operation in different stages of research work from the beginning but also for shooting off my psychological conflicts. During my PUC and degree college days, I used to be identified with 'BRS Fiends Circle', where I had good friends like Basavaraj Sankannanavar, Ravi Ukkunda (PSI), Shankar Sutar, Shivayogi Chinnikatti, Srikant Pattar, Siddu Gadad, Harish, Kantesh, Annappa and many others. I will ever remain grateful for their affection and friendly encouragement.
I also thank all my past and present colleagues and friends at ISEC. Among them Rajendra Desai, Neelkanta (IIT Bombay), Khalil, Rangegowda, Malini, Smitha, Shreedevi, Yogeshwari, Nitin, Raghavendra, Venkatanarayana, Shivalingaiah, Pradeep, Skylab, Prathiba, Prachita, Poornima, and many other for their encouragement & support.

I wish to thank Manohar Gouda (M.Phil), Rajesh Gaonkar, Dr. Hanamanth Jambgi for their suggestions during the process of drafting. I am grateful to Dr. B. Javali and Dr. M Tanappagoul Lecturers for their moral support.

I want to thank my roommates F. S Belavagi and S. S. Srigiri Chandraprakash and Chandru for their thoughtful help. I thank my friends at New Boys’ hostel, Swami, Dr. Tembadamani, Dr. Tammannanavar, and all others. I have also to say ‘thank you’ to my seniors Dr. Sahana Joshi, Dr. Nagarja Muggur, Dr. Shima Hegade, and all who have supported for my development.

I am also grateful to my research mates and other well-wishers Nagaraj Kusagal, Narayana Billava, Pallavi Gotur, Prema Pattanashetti, Rajeshwari Naik, Sarswati Bomnal, Sujata Nejakar, Vanita, and many other friends who have helped me directly and indirectly not only for this endeavour but also for my personal growth.

A special thanks to Shri. P. Ramachandran (ISEC) for editorial support. This chain of my gratitude would be definitely incomplete if I do not thank the administrative supporting staff of ISEC and Karnataka University. I thank Mr. M. K Mohan Kumar, Mr. V. Devaraj, Mrs. Chowgule, Mr. Kalmesh and others for their excellent support and encouragement. Of course, despite all the help provided by many people, I alone remain responsible for the contents of the report and the errors or omissions if any in the report.
