Your attitude is a little thing,
But it makes a big difference.

Attitude has made a big difference in my life. The people surrounding me, their attitude towards me and vice-versa, it all means a lot to me. While, I collected the food material for the research work, many hands came in to help me.

First and the foremost, I immensely thank my guide Dr. (Mrs.) Shrimati C. Das, who has been a constant source of light all through. She held my hand and taught me to walk at every step of the research work. The formidable steps were smoothened by her. Our regular meetings, the constant discussions over the topic made me reach to the certain truths of life and inspired me to work with full zest and fervor. The research has attained a substantial form in the aura of her courage, confidence and determination. Besides, I feel, she has discovered and unfolded a new image of myself. I really fall short of words in expressing my deep sense of gratitude towards my guide.

I thank the AIRC (American Information Resource Center) Chennai and IACIS (Indo American Center for International Studies), Hyderabad. These were the institutions which went in to provide books and the required material needed for the research work. Mr. M.K. Jagdish, Director of AIRC and his colleagues responded promptly; which made my job easy and smooth. I thank Mr. N.B. Nayak and the other staff members of the Department of English, Karnatak University, who helped me with the office formalities.

Thanks you is too small a word for my mother-in-law, brother-in-law and sisters-in-law who not only created a conducive atmosphere but who went out of their way to promote my studies. I once again especially thank my mother-in-law without whose help and encouragement this thesis would not have seen the light of the day.

The bewitching inspiration, to land myself in this field, comes in from my father and mother, brothers, bhabis and nieces and nephews whose constant prayers, encouragement and best wishes have made me what I am today.
I would like to express my love and gratitude to Dr. Marie Raj, Dr. Chandrika Kamat and Mrs. Rashmi who sustained me and my work whenever the need arose. Besides the love and care of all my friends does not go unnoticed.

The research work would have been a dream unrealized had it not been for my husband, Dhiraj who stood beside me in spite of his hectic schedule. He set me on a pedestal that leads to ecstasy. His strength, belief and faith have made me attain an enormous peace with myself. My daughters, Aashna and Prerana - the two cherubs are two mysteries who have always been my source of strength. They managed their work on their own, when I was supposed to be beside them especially during their studies. Their understanding and love was simply amazing.

I thank Mr. Savanur and Ms. Deepa of Savanur Graphics who labored hard to help me achieve my goal. I am really impressed with their diligence and professionalism with which they handled the word processing. Rarely does one come across with such exclusive work.

All said and done, it is no doubt the wish of Almighty that I reach this goal. In this journey He remained my spiritual inspiration and a guiding star. My prayers have been heard and today I sit peacefully in the shade of His blessings.
