"A seeking after truth cannot afford to be an egoist. There are limits to the capacity of an individual and the moment he flatters himself that he can undertake all tasks, God is there to humble his pride. For myself, I am gifted with enough humility to look even to babes and sucklings for help. Fates decide my undertakings for me. I never go to see them. They come to me almost in spite of me". Mahatma Gandhi (Words of Wisdom)

At the outset my reverences towards Almighty would definitely deserve the most special mention, for the kindly bestowed health and vigor on me, through every step of my inquisitive drive.

Somehow I am able to draw the noblest in mankind, and that is what enables me to maintain my faith in God and human nature. Work without faith is like an attempt to reach the bottom of a bottomless pit. My faith helps me to discover new truths every day. I am content with the doing of this task in front of me. My work will be finished if I succeed in carrying conviction to the society and brotherhood.
