ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It’s great sense of truthfulness, I render my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my Research guide Prof. N. Rajendran, Dean of Arts, Professor and Head, Department of History, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirapalli for providing an opportunity in his esteemed research group and for permitting me to carry out the research work under his expert guidance. Right from the day of the decision to work on this topic which was chosen; he took active, personal interest in my work and guided me by offering his generous help, valuable suggestions and constant encouragement in each and every stage. Throughout the Ph.D programme, he provided me lot of freedom, encouragement and good support. He is a keen taskmaster that demands conscientious, prompt and first rate academic work from his scholars. This work would not have been possible without his guidance, encouragement and I have successfully overcome many difficulties and learned a lot from him. This will be ever memorable moment and I will never forget his help throughout my entire life - thanks a lot sir. In this occasion, I should thank GOD, because he only introduced him and assigned, Prof. NR as my research supervisor.
