ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work would not have been possible but for the ever caring guidance of Dr. C. Rajashekhar, Dean and Chairman, Post Graduate Department of Studies in Law, Karnataka University, Dharwad. He set my goals and charted my course, and guided me in every step of this exercise. I pay my heartfelt thanks to Dr. C. Rajashekher.

I am grateful to Dr. K. R. Aithal, Reader and Dr. I. Sharath Babu, Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Law, Karnataka University Dharwad for their encouragement throughout this period. My sincere thanks are also due to the other staff members of the Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Law, Karnataka University, Dharwad.

My special thanks are due to Dr. C. S. Patil, Principal, University College of Law, Dharwad, and other teaching staff of the University College of Law, Dharwad.

I express my gratitude to Shri. M. S. Patil, Librarian and to all the Library staff of the University College of Law. I profusely thank the Library staff of the National Law School of India University, Bangalore especially Mr. Navalgund and Mr. Madhusudan.

I very much thank Shri. S. L. Bagi, P.G. Department of Law, Karnataka University, Dharwad for neatly typing the thesis.

My deepest gratitude to my parents Smt. Vanamala and Shri. S. L. Deshpande, my husband Raghavendra Shurpali, and my Mother-in-Law Smt. Meera Shurpali, who stood by me throughout this period and my kid daughter Tanmayi Shurpali who smilingly bore with me all the time.
