CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION 1

CHAPTER I
WRITING FOR THE YOUNG READER : THEORY AND CRITICAL APPRECIATION.
1. Definition of Children’s Literature and Childhood 6
2. Teenage Fiction : Theory and Critical Appreciation 23
3. Writing in English for the Young Reader in India 40
4. Contemporary Trends in Fiction for the Young Reader 46

CHAPTER II
RUSKIN BOND : WRITING FOR THE ADOLESCENT READER IN INDIA
Autobiographical Sketches and Memoirs
1. The Lamp is Lit: Leaves from a Journal 57
2. Scenes from a Writer’s Life : A Memoir 65
3. Rain in the Mountains : Notes from the Himalayas 76

CHAPTER III
NOVELS AND NOVELLAS : ADOLESCENT THEME
1. The Room on the Roof: Novel of Adolescence 78
2. Vagrants in the Valley 94
3. Delhi is Not Far 100
4. A Flight of Pigeons 107
5. The Sensualist : A Cautionary Tale 111
6. A Handful of Nuts 115
CHAPTER IV
SHORT STORIES
1. Thematic Patterns 118
2. Childhood and Innocence 122
3. Human Relationships 127
4. Infatuation, Nature and Wildlife 133
5. Family and Friends 150
6. Murder, Mystery and the Supernatural 165

CHAPTER V
CHILDREN’S READING HABITS: A SURVEY
1. Reading responses of children 169
2. Role of gender and age factor 170
3. Codification of data 172
4. Questionnaire as a Survey tool 182
5. Adults on children’s reading habits 185
6. Analysis and Results 193
CONCLUSION 196

ANNEXURE
1. Conversation with Ruskin Bond 205
2. Interview with Paro Anand 209
3. Interview with Ravi Shankar 213
4. Sample Questionnaire to the Teenagers 217
5. Sample Questionnaire to the Adults 219

BIBLIOGRAPHY 221