ACKNOWLEDGMENT

At the outset I would like to thank the great almighty for bestowing me with the opportunity to undertake and complete this research work.

I extend my sincere thanks to the most important person who made it possible for me to complete this research work i.e. my respected teacher and supervisor Dr. M.A. Kohok Sir.

I am indeed indebted to his sparing his valuable time to reveres and revamp the material by providing his constructive suggestions, resulting in substantial improvements in my work. He was a continuous and consistent source of encouragement, besides being incredibly supportive during my learning journey. His patience and guidance gave me the requisite strength and motivation to complete my research work. I learnt many things from his experiences and enriched my work from his wide in depth knowledge and wisdom. I would like to thank Prof. Dr. D. D. Walke Director & staff of Institute of Management Research and Technology, Nashik for cooperation. Further, I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to all those special people who made this research possible.

My thanks are also due to the Officers and Employees of selected Private Sector Banks for their help.

This research work couldn’t have been completed without the blessings and support of my parents. My sincere thanks go to my mother Mrs. Mariamben and father Mr. Ravikant Christian who always cheered me for this study. I owe this thesis to my parents.
The most special thanks goes to my beloved son Saumya for his continue patience, hugs and sweet smiles which helped me lot during my research work and I faced this tenure very smoothly. I am thankful to my husband Jayesh who has taken great strain to give final touch and shape to my research work.

At last, how can I forget Dr. S. G. Deobhankar Sir who has helped and encouraged me through out my research work. He worked as a driving force to activate me for undertaking qualitative research work.
