ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This work would not have been possible without the encouragement and guidance of a number of people. I take the opportunity to thank and acknowledge the support of all those who helped me in carrying out this research work in one form or other.

First and foremost, I bow my head in reverence to Almighty, for providing me enough strength and patience to complete this work. I am especially grateful to my father in law, S. Sukhwant Singh, who encouraged me to pursue this degree and who has helped me throughout the development of this project. To my husband, S. Navdeep Singh, thank you for encouraging me in all of my pursuits and inspiring me at every stage. To all other family members, for their unconditional support, love and blessings.

I owe a debt of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. (Mrs.) Sangeeta Arora, Associate professor, Department of Commerce, GNDU, for her time and careful attention to detail. Thank you for guiding me as a person, supervisor and a mentor, for believing in me, for being patient with my peculiar doubts and for helping me explore ideas. It is only with her able direction and patient support, that I have been able to achieve this milestone.

I would like to give special thanks to Dr. Lakhwinder Singh, Head, Department of Commerce, GNDU for providing me guidance whenever required and clearing my doubts. I must also thank Dr. Balwinder Singh, Associate Professor, Department of Commerce, GNDU for challenging my thinking by helping me question assumptions and view issues from multiple perspectives. Without it, this project would not be what it has become.

I also express my sincere thanks to Dr. G.S. Thakur, Director, Cordia Institute of Management and Technology who despite of his busy schedule, has always spared time to give me his expert advice during initial stages of research and pilot study. I am especially grateful to Dr. H.S. Sandhu, Principal, CKDIMT for his valuable assistance and support during final stage of my project.
To the faculty and researchers at Department of Commerce and University Business School, GNDU, thank you for creating a congenial environment. Special thanks to Dr. B.S. Hundal, Dr. Jasveen, Dr. Aparna Bhatia, Dr. Harsandaldeep Kaur, Dr. Meenu, Dr. Kanika Marwaha, Dr. Mandeep Kaur and Dr Saurabh Grover.

Special thanks to Vishal Malhotra, Lab Incharge, Department of Commerce, GNDU for lending me a helping hand at critical times in the form of tools required for data analysis. Sukhdev Singh, Programmer, Department of Computer Science, GNDU, thank you for helping me in using statistical tools for data analysis and interpretation thereon. I duly acknowledge the services of Bhai Gurdas Library and departmental library (Commerce and Business Management), GNDU.

I would like to thank all the participants who took part in the surveys conducted as a part of this research for their valuable time and kind assistance. To banking fraternity, especially Vikas Sharma (Manager HDFC, Jal), Harkamal Singh (Manager, Kotak Mahindra Bank, Asr), Sahil (SBI, Asr), Mr. Makkar (SBI, Jal), Vikas Sharma (Manager, Federal Bank, Asr), Naresh Bharara (AGS, SBI, Jal.), Neeraj Sharma (Manager, ICICI Bank, Ldh.), Vishnu Tandon (Chief Manager, Bank of India, Asr.), K.K. Sinha (ex-Manager), for showing interest and providing valuable inputs to this research work.

To my friends, thank you for listening, offering me advice, and supporting me through this entire process each in their own unique way. Special thanks to Megha Sharma, Divya Mahajan, Mandeep Rahi, Reema Sehmbe, Gagandeep Sahi, Kapil Tandon, Dalbir Singh, Jatinder Singh, Bhawna Sharma, Nitin Jain, Sunaina Sehgal, Maninder Kaur, Mahindra Pal Singh, Bhavnish Bedi, and Amit.

In the end, I express a very deep sense of gratefulness, from the core of my heart, to Sargun, my daughter, who unknowingly sacrificed of our time together so that I could make it happen – a big thank you to her.

Thank you to everyone for having faith in me.
