Acknowledgements

I am indebted to many individuals who have extended their helping hands in the accomplishment of this work. Without their support and help in various ways, this work would not have reached its present form. At the very outset, I would like to offer my sincere gratefulness to my guide Prof. Sunil Kumar Dutta, Head, Department of Cultural Studies, who, from the very beginning, has been encouraging me to execute this task in a systematic way. He has provided continuous help and guidance throughout this work. I thank him wholeheartedly.

Next, I am grateful to Dr. Parag Moni Sarma, Reader, Department of Cultural Studies, for his valuable suggestions and checking the proof of my thesis. His guidance has added a new dimension to this work.

Next, I extend my sincere gratitude to Dr. Chandan Kr. Sharma, Reader and Head, Department of Sociology, Ms. Madhurima Goswami and Mr. Paramesh Dutta, two faculty members of our department for their continuous guidance, help and encouragement which have helped me to accomplish the work in proper way.

I am grateful to Prof. Rabin Dev Chaudhury and Prof. Satyendra Narayan Goswami, two retired professors of our department, for their guidance and encouragement. I am also thankful to Prof. Madan M. Sarma and Prof. Bijay Kr. Danta, Department of English and Foreign Languages and Mr. Amiya Kr. Das, Guest Lecturer, Department of Sociology for their kind help and suggestions.

Next, my sincere thanks go to the Library teams of Tezpur University, Guwahati University, Dibrugarh University and North Eastern Hill University (NEHU) for their kind help and co-operation. Dr. Mukesh Saikia, Mr. Anjan Gohain, Mr. Mahendra Kr. Nath and Mr. Hiranya Sarma of Tezpur University Central Library deserve special thanks.

Next, I extend my sincere gratitude to Dr. Arun Kumar Routray, Principal, Kampur College for his constant support and help. I am also thankful to my colleagues at Kampur College for their kind support. Mr. Padum Kakoti, Ms. Urmipriti Mahanta and Ms. Purabi Baruah deserve special thanks.

I must acknowledge with thanks the contribution of the informants in the field work without whose help this work would not have been possible to accomplish. I offer my gratefulness to Sri Mileswar Pator, Sri Moneswar Deori, Srj
Chitraram Deori, Sri Mohan Chandra Deka and Sri Lalit Chandra Bordoloi who have not only provided authentic information, but also valuable reading materials related to my research project. I would like to thank informants Sri Narayan Bordoloi, Sri Bibhu Bordoloi and Smti Deepali Bordoloi for their valuable information and co-operation.

I am grateful to my seniors Dr. Parashmoni Dutta, Dr. Juri Gogoi Konwar, Baijayanta Keot and Renu Kalia for their help and co-operation. I extend my gratefulness to my hostel senior and SGI co-members Taposi Katoki, Lipika Das and late Tarun Das for their friendship, care and prayer in my crucial moments. I would also like to thank my entire senior, junior and specially research scholar friends in the department of Cultural Studies and in the hostel Bordoichila Chatri Niwas for their friendship and help.

Last, but not the least, I thank my family members and relatives whose love, encouragement and help are beyond measurable. At first I must thank my brother Nagen Ch. Borah for his help during my field work. Next, I would like to thank my sister Minati Borah, brother-in-law Pradeep Ch. Saikia, sister-in-law Boby Borah and cousin Diganta Kalita for their help and co-operation throughout the research project.

Finally, I must thank University Grants Commission for granting me Senior Research Fellowship (SRF) which has helped me to accomplish the task smoothly without financial constraint. Next, my sincere thanks go to the authorities of Tezpur University for granting me the permission to do this work here.

With thanks to all well wishers.
