LIST OF GRAPHS

Graph 1: Prevailing Usage of Internet by Physicians
Graph 2: Prevailing Usage of Internet for Professional Purposes by Physicians
Graph 3: Prevailing Frequency of Usage of Internet for Professional Purposes by Physicians
Graph 4: Increase in Usage of Internet in Last 3 Years by Physicians
Graph 5: Prevailing Trust of Physicians on Internet-originated Information
Graph 6: Willingness to Snare Email Address with Medical Representatives
Graph 7: Willingness to Establish Responsible Two-Way Online Communication
Graph 8: Preferred E-detailing Model Amongst Physician
Graph 9: Prevailing Perception of Importance of Up-to-date Professional Information
Graph 10: Reasons for Reluctance to Meet MRs
Graph 11: Prevailing Familiarity with E-Detailing Amongst Physicians’ Reluctant to Meet MRs
Graph 12: Access to Internet amongst Physicians’ Reluctant to Meet MR
Graph 13: Willingness amongst Physicians’ Reluctant to Meet MR to Participate in E-Detailing Sessions.
Graph 14: Preferred e-detailing Model Amongst Physicians Reluctant to Meet MRs
Graph 15: Physicians Response: DTC communications are Ethical Graph 16: Physicians’ Response: DTC Communication Improves Quality of Interaction with Patients
Graph 17: Physicians’ Response: DTC Communication leads to better Compliance.
Graph 18: Physicians Response: DTC leads to Self-Medication
LIST OF DIAGRAMS

Diagram 1: The Position of Marketing Management
Diagram 2: Simple Marketing System
Diagram 3: Comparison of selling and marketing concepts
Diagram 4: The Marketing Mix
Diagram 5: Schematic Representation of Marketing of Pharmaceutical Products
Diagram 6: Approximate Position of Various Companies on Reach-Effectiveness Matrix vis-à-vis E-Detailing