ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset, I, the investigator, am impelled to place on record my deep gratitude and intense adoration for my mentor, Dr. Jaya Jaise, Associate Professor, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, whose exemplary guidance, timely inspiration and exceptional candour have enabled me to realize my long cherished dream. Her scholarly temperament, passionate quest for innovation and precision, skill for improvisation and boundless enthusiasm have spurred me on to pursue excellence. Her optimistic outlook, empathetic approach and the immense confidence that she reposed in me enabled me to overcome the seemingly insurmountable odds, especially when I encountered testing times. This work will ever remind me of my Guru’s invincible virtues.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. T. V. Thulasidharan, Professor and Director, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, and Dean, Faculty of Education, Mahatma Gandhi University. I express my heartfelt thanks to both the teaching and non-teaching fraternity of the School of Pedagogical Sciences, for the encouragement rendered to me during the course of my study. I am thankful to the Librarian of the School, Mr. Shiju Das, for his timely assistance and to the staff of the Mahatma Gandhi University Library for their co-operation during the period of my study.

I express my sincere thanks to the Management, Principal and Staff of St. John the Baptist’s College of Education, Nedumkunnam, for stoking up my confidence so as to bring my work to completion. I remember with gratitude Dr. (Fr.) Tony Chethipuzha for the unfailing interest that he evinced in the different stages of my Study.

I remember with gratitude the Heads, Teachers and Students of various Upper Primary Schools of Kottayam and Pathanamthitta Districts of Kerala, for the sincere cooperation rendered during the conduct of the study.
I am deeply indebted to my friends, colleagues and students for their encouragement that kept me committed to my work.

I am deeply thankful to my parents, Mr. Thomas P. T. and Gracy Thomas as well as my Mother-in-Law Mariamma Thomas, for all that they have been to me. I have no words to acknowledge the unfailing support of my husband Mr. Shaji Thomas and my kids Joanne and Jef who kept me going all through the course of my study. I can never forget the unfailing prayer and support of my sister Betsymol Thomas and her family, my brother Babyraj Thomas, and other dear and near ones.

Above all, I am ever indebted to God Almighty who, through these benefactors and by His immense power, enabled me to transcend circumstances and bring the task to its fulfillment.

BINCY THOMAS
