Acknowledgement

At the very outset, I am most grateful to ALLAH, the Almighty for providing me with the capability to finish this research work.

I want to take this opportunity to extend my sincere appreciation and thanks to my guide Dr. Prasanna G. Deshmukh, Principal and Head, Anantrao Thopte College, Bhor (Dist-Pune) for his valuable guidance and constant encouragement during the course of my research work. His unfailing co-operation and commitment will be long remembered. I am indebted to him for his motivation and moral support.

I would like to thank the Managers of Institutions who were kind enough to permit me the long in-depth interviews and provided me the required information about their Human Resource Management Practices inside their institutions.

I must also put on record my gratitude to my Research Center, Brihan Maharashtra College of Commerce, for their cooperating and helping with me during research period.

I owe a debt of humble gratitude to my revered teachers, who have moulded my thoughts and taught me whatever I have endeavored to present. I hold them all in high esteem.

There are many more friends and well-wishers, mention of all of them may be impossible, (it is indeed very difficult to mention all of them by names) who directly or indirectly inspired, encouraged and has stood besides me throughout, exhorting me on when the going got tough and willingly helped in various ways. To all these persons, I extend my deep-felt gratitude.

My research work often pushed my family responsibilities into second place and meant added strain on my wife. I must mention the tremendous forbearance shown by her and incessant patience she has borne with me throughout the period of my research study. She cheerfully shouldered the entire family responsibility when I was busy, most of the time, with my research work. It would have been impossible for me to complete the research work without her ungrudging support.

I would also like to mention my three adorable sons - Ghadah, Yousef and Hesham, who suffered all the inconveniences patiently as I could not give them the attention they needed and who provided moral support and cheerful moments while I was preoccupied with this laborious task. To them goes my biggest and most heartfelt “Thanks”

Finally, I express my gratitude to my parents, sisters and brothers for their encouragement and constant moral support. Thanks also to any one who had a role in making this work possible.
