CHAPTER 8

HYPOTHESIS

1. It is assumed there is no significant gap between information Security and Risk Management within the Organizations regarding the data.
2. Banks and Financial institution also lack behind to maintain the secured Information data.
3. There is no significant change in maintaining the Data, update the Data and taking backup to avoid risk management.

SCOPE OF THE RESEARCH PAPER

This Research Paper suggests Information Security and Risk Management for the country that could be adopted in short term and identifies issues that arise in designing and implementation of comprehensive Information Securities in India.