ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

One of the most rewarding aspects of this research and making of this thesis has been to complete a sort of mission. I have accumulated many debts while completing this mission and I take great pleasure in acknowledging them here. I also express my gratitude for the help and resourceful assistance I received in the process of completing this research. If anyone has not been named, kindly consider it an error of omission than ingratitude.

First and foremost, I wish to thank my research guide, Dr. Sarjerao A. Salunkhe, Professor and Head, Department of Sociology, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for his forbearance of my shortcomings and painstaking as well as able guidance and scrutiny of my work. An encouraging and resourceful dialogue and discussion with him made cleared the avenues towards the destination of this research.

I am very grateful to Dr. Mick Moore and Dr. Anuradha Joshi from IDS, Sussex, U.K. and Dr. Sujata Patel, Professor in Sociology (earlier Head, Department of Sociology, University of Pune, Pune and now in Hydrabad University, Hyderabad) for giving me an opportunity and guidance in the collaborative research project on EGS in Maharashtra. They initiated me into serious exploration of EGS and parallel programmes in Maharashtra and India. The research work I did with them has become the background of this Ph. D. research.

I am also grateful to Professor Dr. R.B. Patil, Dr. B.N. Kendre, the members of scrutiny committee, who guided me to do some corrections and reworking of my thesis. I also thank Professor Dr. J.B. Ambekar, Professor Dr. R.N. Salve, Shri. D. Shrikant, the clerk Mr. Sutar S.B., Satish Dhanwade and all from Department of Sociology, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for their encouragement.
throughout this work. I must put on my sincere feelings of gratitude and respect towards my Sociology teachers like Dr. D. N. Dhanagare, Dr. U. B. Bhoite, Dr. Prakash Pimpale, G. D. Kulkarni and my guiding friends Dr. Shruti Tambe, Ganesh Vispute and my Principal Dr. V. B. Gaikwad, for their help and encouragement and support throughout this work.

I am also thankful to my friends in the NGOs and action groups, whose studies, action, interventions, advocacy efforts all enlightened me to look at action oriented dimensions of PEP implementation. Those include, Ashwini Kulkarni, Pragati Abhiyan, Nashik, Seema Kakade and Pranjal Dixit, Prayas, Pune, Yashada, Pune, Mukund and Vasanti Dixit, Lok Adhar, Nashik, Mohan Hirabai Hiralal, Vrukshamitra, Chandrapur, Satish and Sadhana Gogulwar, Amhi Amachya Arogyasathi, Kurkheda, Kashinath Warghade, Haribhau Ambapure, Vachan and many activists from different action groups like Shramajivi Sanghatana and tribal action leaders from Nashik district, Shankar Borade, Late Shri. Mohan Gunjal, Ulka Mahajan, Dipti Raut, Prof. H. M. Desarda and many others.

I also thank all the officers and informants at different levels including- Ex MLA and State Level EGS Committee member Shri. Pandurangrao Dingare, Dr. Vasant Pawar, ex-MP and ex-MLA, Suryabhan Gadakh, ex-MLA, A. T. Pawar, ex MLA, Shri. Vinayakdada Patil and many other political leaders, Dr. Arjun Chikhale, and other EGS Dy. Collectors, Shri. Kishor Gajbhiye and Dr Sanjay Chahande, ex-Comissioners, Shri. Gosavi, Shri. Pralhad Kachare, Dy. Commissioner, several Tahsildars, BDOs, DRDA officials, Dr. Ashok Kotwal from Canada, Dr. Ashok Chausalkar, Dr. Ram Bapat, Shri. Vasant Palshikar, Amita Shaha and Asha Kapoor-Mehta (CPRG) and many others for providing valuable information and inputs.
My special thanks to S. T. Patil, P. B. Kolhe and Dipak Shinde, my colleagues from department of Sociology K.T.H.M. College, Nashik and also to my colleagues and friends Ganpat Lomate, Dr. A. D. Bandal, Vinaya Kelkar, D. G. Ushir, for their encouragement and help.

Last but not least, I wish to thank my family members for their patient co-operation and support throughout this work. I am deeply grateful to my father Shri. Datta Savale, a veteran social worker, actionist, for being a source of inspiration during my life so far. My wife Sujata and daughter Rasika missed me a lot during my research work that started in 2001. Their wholesome help and moral support pushed me forward all the time, to complete this research.

My sincere thanks to my sisters, Swati-Vivek and Kavita-Kishor and their families for the local help they provided in Kolhapur during my work.

And lastly my sincere thanks to Shri. Nandu from Shrikant Computers, Kolhapur for his help in typing the thesis and bringing it out in the present format.

Kolhapur,
