Word is insufficient to express my earnest gratitude and indebtedness to my supervisor Dr. Animesh Biswas for his excellent guidance, constant encouragement and valuable suggestions throughout the work. I owe a lot to him for sufficiently sharing his valuable time with me from his hectic schedule.

I am thankful to all the teachers of the Department of Mathematics, University of Kalyani, for their encouragement and constant support during the study. Especially, I wish to thank Prof. B. B. Pal for his constant encouragement and helpful suggestions.

I shall forever remain indebted to all the members of my family for encouraging me in all phases of my research work. I am extremely grateful to them for their patience and understanding and continuous support.
