ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is indeed a pleasure to remember with gratitude the help and encouragement received from Scholars and friends in working on this subject and writing out the thesis. As a keen student of History and a teacher in the subject for more than fifteen years, in South Kanara area, I am fascinated by the cultural heritage of the region as also by the role it has played in the political and cultural history of the country from the very early period till recent times. My interest in the history of Kanara was first roused when I read the Kannada work Dakshina Kannada Jilleya Prachina Ithihasa (Early History of South Kanara District) by Shri Aigal written as far back as in 1923 and Ancient Karnataka (History of the Tuluvas) by Dr. B. S. Salthore, published in 1936. The recent scholarly works like A History of South Kanara by Dr. K. V. Ramesh and Studies in Tuluva History and Culture by Dr. P. Gururaja Bhatt prompted me to conduct research in some aspects of the history of South Kanara. I have received sufficient encouragement from other scholarly treaties also of Dr. Chitnis (Keladi Polity, Karnataka University, Dharwar) and Dr. B. S. Shastry (Keladi Kings and the Portuguese) (in Kannada), Karnataka University, Dharwar).
my good fortune that his successor Dr. Srinivas Ritti, Professor and Head of the Department of Ancient Indian History and Epigraphy allowed me to work under his guidance. Words fail to express my deep debt of gratitude to him. But for his great help it would have been impossible for me to complete this work. I am beholden to him for his kindness in helping me at every stage of my research and writing this thesis.

It is indeed gratifying that all the members of the staff of the Department of Ancient Indian History and Epigraphy, stood behind me in the completion of this work. I am very much benefited by the scholarly advise which I received from time to time by Dr. B.K. Gururaja Rao, Dr. A. Sundara and Dr. (Miss) S.L. Shantakumari. My friends Shri S.V. Padigar, Shri Laxmikanth Rao and Shri C.S. Patil have willingly shouldered the burden of going through the typed pages and effecting necessary corrections. I always remember with gratitude the never failing cooperation of untiring Shri C.R. Kadkol, the typist of the Department, who put up with all the troubles I gave him and completed the typing work in record time. It was kind of Shri R.S. Desai, Artist of the Kannada Research Institute, Karnatak University, Dharvar to have prepared the map of the Kanara during the period under study.
The Librarians and Library Staff of the Karnatak University, and Kannada Research Institute, Dharwar, have always readily helped me in all my requirements. I have also derived help from the Libraries of University of Bombay, P.G.Centre, Panjim, Goa, Fr.Heras Institute of Bombay, St.Paulius College Mangalore and Vijaya College, Mulki. I express my heartfelt thanks to the authorities of all these Libraries.

In consulting the original source material I have received much encouragement and help from Dr.G.S.Gai, Chief Epigraphist (Rtd.) and his staff, Shri V.G.Khobrekar, Director of Maharashtra State Archives, Bombay, Dr.V.T.Gune, State Archives, Goa and Shri M.A.Desai, formerly Archivist, Bombay.

In the course of my studies I had an opportunity of discussing different topics with scholars who have worked on different aspects of Keladi and Maratha History. My discussion with Dr.A.R.Kulkarni, Professor and Head of the Department of History, University of Poona, Dr.K.N.Chitnis Reader in History, University of Poona, Dr.S.U.Kamath, of the Bangalore University have greatly helped me in my work.

Shri Devkumar Jain of Mudabidre, Shri Venkataryachar of Suratkal, Shri Visvesvaraiah of Halasnad, the late Chandranath Indra, the chief priest of Kotakere basti, Shri
U.S. Holla of Uppunda, Shri Antonio D’Costa S.J. Ex. Director of Heras Institute of Bombay have helped me in my work by lending the original unpublished source material like the inscriptions and other records.

Dr. B.R. Gopal, Epigraphist, Institute of Kannada Studies, University of Mysore, Dr. P. Gururaja Bhatt, Principal, Milagrace College, Kalyanpur, Dr. P.M. Joshi, former Director of Archives, and Dr. B.S. Shastry of the P.G. Centre Goa, have gone through the parts of my thesis and have given valuable suggestions and guidance. My colleagues in the Vijaya College, Mulki, Shri D.N. Raikar, Shri K.C. Nair and Shri D. Raghunath Rao have helped me by supplying translations of some of the original sources.

Finally, it is my bounden duty to express my indebtedness to my Principal, Shri K.G. Shenoy, for whose constant encouragement I would not have been able to complete the work by now and I ever remain grateful to all those who have stood by me in all my difficulties and helped me in the onerous task of completing my research work.

(K.G. Vasantha Madhava)