I profoundly thank my supervisors Prof. M.M. Sarma and Dr. P.Madhavan, who encouraged me to keep pace with my work inspite of all the odds. Prof.M.M.Sarma understood what it is like to do research along with teaching assignments. He made things easy for me so that I could do justice to both of my commitments. Dr. Madhavan gave me his valuable time whenever I was in Hyderabad. His critical acumen taught me how to go about doing research in linguistics.

My sincere thanks to M. M. Sarma, Atul Goswami, Satish Bhattacharjee, Gautam Borah and Purneswar Nath for helping me out with the Assamese data.

I extend special thanks to the headmasters / principal, teachers and students of the Assam Valley School, Donbosco and Government Boys without whose help and co-operation, my study on second language acquisition would not have been possible.

A word of thanks to probal Dasgupta and Usha Lakshmanan for their helpful comments.

I cannot forget friends like Abhijit Sengupta, Jitu and Bhaskar, who came to my rescue whenever the computer played truant.

This thesis would not have been possible without the blessings of my parents. I offer my gratitude and thanks to them as well as to the rest of my family.
