BIBLIOGRAPHY

Primary Sources:

1. Private papers of Master Gurbanta Singh
3. Election Reports, Chief Electoral Officer, Chandigarh and Election Commission of India, New Delhi.
4. Election Manifestoes of Political Parties.
5. Party Documents.
6. Recorded Interviews of Political Leaders.

Newspapers:

1. Ajit (Punjab)
2. Hindustan Times
3. Jag Bani (Punjab)
4. Punjabi Tribune (Punjabi)
5. The Hindu
6. The Tribune
7. Times of India

Magazines:

1. Ravidas Jaikara (Punjab)
2. Bhim Patrika (Punjabi)
3. Punjab Journal of Politics
Secondary Sources:

Books

• ________________, Open Secret: India’s Intelligence Unveiled, Manas Publications, New Delhi, 2005.

• Hansen, Thomas Blom, The Saffron Wave: Democracy and Nationalism in Modern India, Oxford University Press, Delhi, 1996.

• James, Welch, Faction and Front: Party System in South India, Young Asia Publications, New Delhi, 1976.

• Mani, Braj Ranjan, Debrah Mani Singh History: Dominance and Resistance in Indian Society (Delhi Manohar, 2007).

• Moon, Vasant (ed.) Dr. Baba Sahib Ambedkar Writings and Speeches, Vol. 7 Govt. of Maharashtra, Bombay, 1992.

• __________, Punjab Accord and Elections: Retrospect and Prospect, Getanjali, New Delhi, 1986.

• ____________, Punjab Dian Milian-Julian Sarkaran (Punjabi), Publication Bureau, Punjabi University, Patiala, 1996.

• __________, Politics of Sikh Homeland, Ajanta Publishers, Delhi, 1994.

• __________, History of Sikh Struggle, Atlantic Publishers and Distributors, New Delhi, 1991.

• __________, The Sikh Resurgence, NBD, Delhi, 1997.

- Weiner, Myron, The Indian Paradox; essays in Indian Politics, Sage Publication, New Delhi,