Acknowledgement
I record my profound deepest sense of gratitude from the bottom of my heart to my guide Dr. K. R. Mani, Assistant Director, Pasteur Institute of India, Coonoor, The Nilgiris, who magnanimously accepted me as his first Ph. D student. His vast experience and indepth knowledge in the field of Microbiology including Vaccinology and Biotechnology have helped me considerably in clarifying and achieving an all round view of my research work in Microbial Biotechnology. His charming perseverance and dedication to work have contributed greatly in maintaining the momentum of the research work. No work of this magnitude could have been accomplished without his helping attitude, invaluable systematic guidance, constant encouragement, valuable suggestions and critical evaluation through out this work.

Words may fall inadequate to describe in the expression of my humble thanks to

- Dr. N. Elangeswaran Director, Pasteur Institute of India, Coonoor, for his valuable suggestion and encouragement in carrying out this work.

- Dr. B. Sampath Kumar, Secretary and Dr. (Mrs.) Sheela Ramachandran, Principal, PSG College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore, for their motivation and encouragement to complete my work.

- Dr. (Mrs.) G. Thilagavathi, Assistant Professor, Department of Textile Technology, PSG College of Technology, Coimbatore, for her valuable timely suggestions and help rendered for a microbiologist to venture in to the filed of Textile Technology.

- Dr. T. Ramachandran, Assistant Professor, Department of Textile Technology, PSG College of Technology, Coimbatore, for his moral support and help throughout my work.

- Dr. K. Swaminathan, Reader, Department of Biotechnology, Bharathiar University, for his splendid suggestions in the final shaping of this research work.

- My learned teachers and presently colleagues Mr. R. Selvakumaran, Head, Dr. A. Michael, Reader and Mrs. C.K. Raadha, Lecturer (SG), Department of Microbiology, PSG College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore and for their continuous encouragement, help, cooperation and providing a suitable environment during the course of my research work.

- Dr. P. Lakshmanaperumalsamy, Professor and Head, Department of Environmental Sciences, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore for his fruitful discussions.

- Mr. K. Rajendrakumar, Lecturer, SSM Institute of Textile Technology, Komarapalayam, for his invaluable support throughout my work.

- Miss. L. Sasikala, Lecturer, Department of Textile Technology, K.S.R College of Technology, Tiruchengode, for her unsparing help and keen interest in this study.

- Dr. K. Selvam, Lecturer, Department of Biotechnology and Dr. K. Pattabi, Head, Department of Environmental Sciences, PSG College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore, for their wholehearted support.

- Mr. K. Paneerselvam, Lecturer, Department of Microbiology, Dr.G.R.Damodaran College of Science, Coimbatore, for his suggestions and support.

- Mr. T. Vinoth Kumar, and Mr. K.V. Ashok raj, Lecturers, Department of Microbiology and Biotechnology, CMS College of Science and Commerce, Coimbatore for their generous help.

- Mr. B. Elayaraja, Lecturer, Department of Microbiology, SNG College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore, who has helped to bring my photos to limelight.

- Mr. Rajkumar Ramu, Mr. R.Jagdish, Mr. C. Saravana Kumar and V. Sambavi for their hard work in testing the bulk samples.

- Mr. Tha. Thayumanavan, Lecturer, Department of Microbiology, SNG College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore, for final shaping of the manuscript.
