ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am happy to take this opportunity to thank my supervisor Dr. M. Subramanian for his constructive and valuable guidance. True to the spirit of Scholarship, he encouraged free and frank discussion. I am very much indebted for his valuable guidance. But for his inspiration and initiative, the thesis would not have emerged in its present shape. His constant encouragement and friendly advice had been a great source of inspiration for me in carrying out my research work successfully. Words fail me to pay my deep debt of gratitude to him.

I am very much grateful to the Management and Principal of Erode Arts College, (Autonomous), Erode for having permitted me to undertake Ph.D. work on part-time basis.

My thanks are due to the Principal and the Head of the Department of Economics, Gobi Arts and Science College (Autonomous), Gobichettipalayam to take up Ph.D., work under my present guide and providing me all the facilities in the Post-Graduate and Research Department of Economics for completing the work successfully.

I also like to express my sincere thanks to the Regional Managers of all the Six Commercial Banks under study who had permitted and helped me in gathering the data.
My heart felt thanks are due to the Lead Bank Officer, branch managers and staffs of six commercial banks under study who have helped me very much in the collection of required data to analyse the performance of banks under service area approach.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the Librarians and Staffs of Gobi Arts and Science College (Autonomous), Gobichettipalayam, Erode Arts College (Autonomous), Erode and Madurai Kamaraj University for their timely help in the collection of required literature for the study. I am greateful to Thiru. P.S. Muthuvelu, Assistant Librarian, Madurai Kamaraj University, Madurai for his keen interest in providing the study materials for this research.

I acknowledge the general encouragement made by the members of Economics faculty of Gobi Arts and Science College (Autonomous), Gobichettipalayam and Erode Arts College (Autonomous), Erode in the course of my research work.

My hearty thanks are due to M/s. Lakshmi Computers, Kavindapadi for properly computerising the data. My Special thanks are also due to Thiru. M.Dhakshana Moorthi, Erode who helped me a lot in programming and processing the data. My thanks are also due to Thiru. K. Baskaran, Chittode for assisting me in the typing work.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not express my sincere thanks to my family members who had shouldered my family responsibility during the course of this research work.
