I express my immense gratitude to Dr. K. KARUNAKARAN, former Vice-Chancellor of the Tamil University and presently Visiting Professor of the Michigan University, USA, for his valuable help and encouragement in the preparation of this thesis.

I owe a great deal of indebtedness to my Supervisor Dr. V. THAYALAN, Reader, Department of Linguistics, for his invaluable guidance and assistance in the preparation of this thesis. I am particularly thankful for the warm personal interest he took in the progress and successful completion of the thesis.

I wish to extend my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. C. SHUNMUGOM, Professor and Head, Department of Linguistics for his constant support and guidance all through the research work.

I am specially thankful to Dr. C. SIVASHANMUGAM, Reader, Department of Linguistics for his constant help and guidance in accomplishing this research work.

I also thank Dr. C. SIVAKUMAR, Reader-cum-Research Officer, CIIL, Mysore for his help in this research work.

I take this opportunity to record my gratitude to Bharathiar University for permitting me to take up this study by providing me with University Research Fellowship and necessary library and infrastructure facilities.

I am very much thankful to NFDC, Mumbai for providing me with data and permitting me to take up this study.

For the purpose of illustration, some figures, pictures and clips from certain books and movies telecast through Turner's Classic Movies were used. I am thankful to them also.

I am very much thankful to the innumerable souls who helped me in one way or other during my studies.

I am very much indebted to my parents, uncle A.Saravanamuthu, aunty Saraswathi, brothers Sivanesan Savithiri, Sivagnanam Nagarathinam, sisters Ramajothi, Jaga and kids Vadivu, Goms, Venky and Revs, whose support — moral and financial — helped me to complete this study.
