ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am greatly indebted to Dr. D. Krishnaraj, Professor of English, Government Arts College, Udhaqamandalam for his guidance and counselling.

I am indebted to Dr. R. Sudarsanam (late), Professor of English and Head of the Department of Languages, Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Coimbatore, who taught me the cloze procedure in classroom situations.

I am immensely thankful to the faculty members of Department(s) of Methods and Evaluation of the Central Institute of English and Foreign Languages, Hyderabad for giving me a direction to my research work.

I am thankful to all the Heads of Departments of English of PSG College of Arts and Science and Sri. Avinashilingam Institute of Higher Education for Women, Coimbatore for permitting me to conduct the classroom experiments and offering useful suggestions.

I am indebted to Prof. M. Suresh, Department of Agricultural Statistics, Centre for Plant and Molecular Biology, Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Coimbatore for helping me in the statistical analysis and interpretation of the data.
I am sincerely grateful to the librarians of Central Institute of English and Foreign Languages, Hyderabad, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore and Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Coimbatore.

I am also grateful to Prof. M. Govindasamy, Department of English, Government Arts College, Coimbatore and Dr. Balasubramaniam, Department of Educational Technology, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore for offering useful suggestions.

My wife, Mrs. Usha Hariharan, assisted me in doing the proof of my thesis. I am immensely grateful to her.

I place on record my sincere thanks to Mrs. K. Jayam, Typist who showed an extreme patience in typing the thesis.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not dedicate the thesis to my (late) father H. Subramaniam, who was anxious to see his son complete the thesis.
