ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is with deep sense of gratitude that I acknowledge the rare opportunity given to me by the Secretary and the Principal of Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore, to pursue my Ph.D research work in their esteemed institution. All the facilities provided and the help and cooperation extended by them are sincerely acknowledged.

I owe my deep sense of gratitude to Professor M. P. Bala Dhandapani, Professor and Head of English Department, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore who provided me with a rare opportunity to undertake my Ph.D research work in his department. I am greatly indebted to the encouragement, guidance and cooperation extended by him throughout the course of the study.

I express my heart felt thanks to Dr. P. Mahalakshmi, Reader, English Department, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore. It is with immense pleasure that I record my obligations to her for all the help and guidance rendered by her throughout the work.

I am deeply beholden to Dr. Diwakar Thomas, Reader, Department of English, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore. I have received help and guidance in abundant measure from Dr. Diwakar, during the course of my work. It is with great pleasure that I record my obligations to him. I am also grateful to all other staff members of the Department of English for their help and cooperation.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. C. Shanmugham, Professor and Head of the Department of Linguistics, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore and Dr. V. Thayalan Reader in English, of the same department for their timely help and guidance.

I owe my special debt of gratitude to the renowned Scholars and Critics in the field of Indian Writing In English, Dr. C. D. Narasimhaiah and Dr. C. N. Srinath, who readily allowed me to stay in Dhvanyaloka, so as to enable me to collect materials from their personal library. Their encouraging words and hospitality made my stay very useful and pleasant. Dhvanyaloka, heavily loaded with materials on Indian Writing in English is undoubtedly the most suitable place for any research scholar pursuing research in Indian Writing in English.

I express my heart felt gratitude to Dr. Robert Belarmine, the former English Studies Officer, British Council, Chennai, whose acquaintance, made my book hunting easy and interesting.

As an ELTAI member I am also deeply indebted to the ELTAI (English Language Teacher's Association of India) which provided me with rare opportunities to meet experts in the field of English and have useful discussions with them on the chosen topic.
Sincere thanks are due to the authorities of the following libraries for the facilities provided.

1. Dhvanyaloka, Mysore.
2. Theosophical Society, Chennai
3. American Council Library, Chennai
6. Anna University library, Chennai.
8. Central Library Coimbatore - 2
11. The Library of Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore -29.

Finally, I have an affectionate ‘Thankyou’ for my beloved husband and children for their loving solicitude and patience which made the rigorous of this effort enjoyable. The encouragement and inspirations given by my husband Dr. S. Kandasamy are lovingly acknowledged.

The meticulous work undertook by M/s Swathy Computers, Salem. is also sincerely acknowledged.
