ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe my heartiest gratitude to the Almighty which remains a source of guidance and motivation.

I am deeply beholden to my parents Sh. Mangat Ram Ji and Smt. Madhu Rani Ji, whose tremendous love and affection, endless sacrifices and utmost faith, built my confidence and kept me in high spirits to accomplish my task.

My this endeavour would have remained unfulfilled except the completion of this study goes to my praiseworthy supervisor Dr. Kuldip Singh, Professor and Head, Department of Political Science, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. He not only guided me to finish this work, rather, made me aware about the realities of life. Through his life long experiences, revered status and ocean of wisdom, he always inspired me to lead a truthful and noble life. There exist several moments in my life where I was in turmoil, there he held a real guide of my life. I find him nearby in every situation, either good or bad. Whatever I have achieved today is credited to him. However, I have no ability to payback. I am extremely thankful for his persistence.

I will be failing in my duty if I fail to express my deep respect and gratitude for Madam Kuljit Kaur, as she always blessed me with her kind heart and motherly love and affection.

My heartiest thanks to all the teachers of Department of Political Science, particularly Dr. R.S. Sandhu and Professor J.S. Sekhon, as their expertise and accommodative nature helped me to complete my study. Without their support it was not possible to finish my Ph.D work. I also have a deep sense of appreciation towards the non teaching staff of Department of Political Science, who also played a vital role in completion of my thesis.

I am also thankful to my dear friends in the Department of Political Science and extend my thanks to my brother like friend Deep.
I also owe my sincere thanks to my sisters Sujata and Vishakha and my brother-in-law, Sh. Harish who always helped and supported me in every possible manner at various stages.

I am thankful to the librarians and staff of the library of the Department of Political Science Guru Nanak Dev University; Main Library of Guru Nanak Dev University Amritsar; Panjab University Library; J.N.U Library; Sapru House Library; Central Asian Studies Centre, Kashmir University, Srinagar; Indian Council of World Affairs for their kind cooperation. My special thanks to the officials of Embassy of the Republic of Uzbekistan, New Delhi, who guided me to attain the important information regarding my Ph.D. work.

In the preparation of this thesis, I have benefited and freely drawn from the works of eminent scholars. I am extremely thankful to all of them.

Last but not least, I thank all those who cannot be mentioned but none of them is forgotten.
