ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My deepest gratitude and sincere respects to my guide Prof. K. Natarajan, Head, Department of Chemistry, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, for his unique approach and meticulous care towards my research work, keen interest and perpetual encouragement throughout the course of my study. He has led me in the right direction in all the way of this investigation, without which the thesis would not have been in a form of what it is now.

The financial support rendered by Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, New Delhi, India, to undertake this work is gratefully acknowledged.

My sincere thanks to Dr. K. J. Rajendra Prasad, Dr. S. P. Rajendran, Dr. P. S. Mohan and Dr. S. Govindarajan, Faculty members, Department of Chemistry, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, for their encouragement throughout the course of this work.

I simply fumble for words to express my heavy debts of gratitude towards Dr. P. Viswanathamurthi, Dr. N. Dharmaraj, Mr. C. Jayabalakrishnan and Dr. K. Shanmugasundaram for their countless help in all possible dimensions and with that only I could able to come up to this stage.

I wish to extend my heartiest thanks to Dr. R. Ramesh and Dr. T. Daniel Thangadurai for their kind help whenever needed.

I am ever grateful to Prof. PR. Athappan, Department of Inorganic Chemistry, Madurai Kamaraj University, Madurai, Prof. G. Karthikeyan and Mr. Pitchaimani, Department of Chemistry, Gandhigram Rural Institute, Gandhigram and Prof. T. Vasudevan, Department of Chemistry, Alagappa University, Karaikudi for their help in carrying out electrochemical studies. I also acknowledge Prof. J. Subramaniam, Department of Chemistry, Pondicherry University, Pondicherry and Prof. M. Kandaswamy, Prof. V. Ramamoorthy and Mr. H. Prakash, Department of Inorganic Chemistry, University of Madras, Chennai, for providing EPR spectra.

I take pleasure to record my thanks to Dr. K. Swaminathan and Mr. G. S. Murugesan, Department of Biotechnology, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, who helped me to assess the biological activities of the samples.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge Dr. S. Yasodhai, Dr. S. Thamaraiselvi, Mrs. M. V. Kaveri, Mr. G. Arul Prakash, Mr. N. Saravanan, Mr. T. Premkumar, Mr. R. Nandhakumar, Mr. N. Sampath Kumar, Ms. C. Kavitha, Ms. V. G. Gnanasoundri, Mrs. M. Gowri, Mr. S. Vairam, Mr. K. N. Kanakachalam, Mr. T. Suresh, Mr. I. Antony Danish, Mr. N. Venkatesh Kumar, Ms. V. Sangeetha, Ms. V. Nithyadevi, Mrs. T. Vandana, Ms. S. V. Renukadevi, Ms. N. Bhuvaneswari, Ms. S. Hemalatha, Mr. V. Mahalingam, Ms. S. Tamilselvi and Ms. N. Chitra Priya, Research scholars, Department of Chemistry, Bharathiar University, for their pleasant association during the course of my research programme.

I sincerely thank Regional Sophisticated Instrumentation Centre, Indian Institute of Technology, Chennai for their help in getting EPR spectra and magnetic moment data. Sophisticated Instruments Facility, Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore and SPIC Science Foundation, Chennai are gratefully acknowledged for providing NMR spectral facilities. I thank the Central Salt and Marine Chemicals Research Institute, Bhavnagar and Central Drug research Institute, Lucknow for their help to carry out elemental analyses.

I wish to express a special note of thanks to my well wishers Prof. S. Manian, Prof. P. Kandasamy, Prof. K. Balachandran and Prof. E. K. Ramasamy of Bharathiar University for the interest they showed on my career development.

I feel happy in acknowledging my friends from various departments of Bharathiar University, Mr. M. Selvaraj, Mr. M. Subramanian, Mr. P. Prakash, Mr. R. Kamalakannan, Mr. K. Senthilkumar, Dr. T. Periasamy, Dr. K. Selvam, Dr. R. Sakthivel, Dr. S. Marshal Anthoni and Mr. M. Ravikumar for their support and affection. I also wish to thank Mr. T. Sivakumar (Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore) and Mr. K. Senthilkumar (University of Hyderabad, Hyderabad) for their timely help in various stages of my research work. I appreciate and thank Mr. R. Ananthan for the neat execution of drawings.

I am duly bound to thank all the non-teaching members of Chemistry Department, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore.

Finally, as a mark of respect and gratefulness, I affectionately thank my parents for their love, support and for having given me an opportunity to pursue higher studies.
