ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my proud privilege to have come under the guidance of Dr. T. Ilangovan, M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D., Lecturer, Selection Grade, Department of History, Government Arts College (Autonomous), Coimbatore who initiated and supervised this investigation. I appreciate his remarkable guidance and co-operation.

I record my thanks to Mrs. Flora Sornakumari, Principal, Emerald Heights College for Women, Udagamandalam for having granted permission to pursue research.

I am especially thankful to Prof. J. Halan, Professor and Head, Department of History, Government Arts College, Udagamandalam for his keen interest, useful comments and informative suggestions.

I am greatly indebted to Prof. M. Basavalingam, Professor and Head, Department of English, Government Arts College, Udagamandalam for his cross checking the references and unflinching support in accomplishing the thesis.

I pay glorious tributes to my Parents, brothers, sisters and friends for their wishes, prayers and inspiring encouragement.
My grateful thanks are due to the following person for their grateful co-operation, Commissioners of Tamilnadu Archives, Madras. The president of the Nilgiri Library, National Archives New Delhi, National Archaeological Department, New Delhi, authorities of the Collectorate Library, Ootacamund, Government Botanical Garden Library, Ootacamund. In addition, the records of Udagamandalam and Coonoor Municipalities, and the Ootacamund Military depot went a long way to complete this work.

I am ever grateful to the Librarians of Jawaharlal Nehru Library in Teen Moorthy Bhavan, New Delhi, Central Library in the Secretariate, New Delhi, Library at Indian Council of Historical research, New Delhi. I acknowledge sincerely, their contributions and scholarly assistance to this work.

I express my profound gratitude to S. Ayyappan for his excellent contribution in computer processing and typing the thesis.

Above all, I thank the Almighty for the completion of this endeavor.

G. Selvanayagi